

2013 Fact Sheet

Marriott International, Inc. is a leading hospitality company founded by J. Willard and Alice S. Marriott in 1927 and guided by J.W. "Bill" Marriott, Jr. for nearly 60 years. A pioneer of modern-day hospitality, he built Marriott into what it is today — one of the most successful and respected companies in the world, now led by CEO Arne Sorenson. Marriott is headquartered in Bethesda, MD, USA, and reported revenues of nearly $13 billion in fiscal year 2013.

80+ YEARS OF HISTORY

From our start, our business plan was to get to know our customers, anticipate their desires and innovate to be the leading hospitality company in the world. Over 80 years later, this concept remains at the core of the way we do business. Our associates meet and anticipate guest needs on every level, from the concierge and waiter to our architects and designers to the leadership team who decides where and when to build.

APPROXIMATELY 325,000 ASSOCIATES

Worldwide, our associates at headquarters and our managed, franchised and licensed properties, are dedicated to demonstrating our company's core values every day. Those values include: put people first, pursue excellence, embrace change, act with integrity and serve our world.
