

ZixCorp Announces New Vice President of Investor Relations and Mergers and Acquisitions

DALLAS —Nov. 19, 2003 — Zix Corporation (ZixCorp™), (Nasdaq: ZIXI), a global provider of protection, management, and delivery solutions for electronic communications, today announced that Bradley C. Almond, CPA, has been named vice president of investor relations and mergers and acquisitions. He brings to ZixCorp over ten years of diverse leadership experience within the high tech sector in both domestic and international locales.

Almond joins ZixCorp from Entrust, Inc. where he held numerous positions including general manager of Entrust Asia and Latin America, president of Entrust Japan, and vice president of finance and customer operations. Prior to Entrust, Inc he served at Nortel Networks as the director of financial planning and operations for Nortel Networks Europe in Paris, France and as a Product Line Controller in Dallas, Texas. Almond holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Texas A&M University, a Master of Business Administration from the University of Texas at Austin, and a Master of Arts in International Management from the University of Texas at Dallas.

“Brad brings a keen insight into all aspects of high tech organizations from business management and accounting to international finance and sales operations,” said John A. Ryan, chairman, president, and CEO for ZixCorp. “He will definitely be a great asset to the company as we continue to develop strong relationships within the investment community.”
