Zix Corporation to Exhibit at 2005 American Banker's Association's Regulatory Compliance Conference

Company to highlight secure email encryption solutions for the banking industry

DALLAS — June 8, 2005 — Zix Corporation (ZixCorp®), (Nasdaq: ZIXI), a global provider of secure e-messaging, e-prescribing, and e-transaction applications and services, today announced it will exhibit in booth #104 at the 2005 American Banker's Association's (ABA) Regulatory Compliance Conference.

ZixCorp representatives will be on hand to showcase ZixCorp's suite of eSecure solutions, including ZixAuditor®, ZixVPM® (Virtual Private Messenger), ZixMail®, and ZixPort®. Each of these solutions assist the financial community with securing personally identifiable financial information that is often exchanged via email. This confidential data includes financial identifiers (e.g., Social Security and account numbers), financial terms (e.g., balance transfer, refinance, etc.), and credit card numbers.

About American Banker's Association's Regulatory Compliance Conference

The role of compliance today within the organization continues to grow in importance and scope, placing more pressure on the compliance professional. The ABA Regulatory Compliance Conference offers strategies that can help manage enterprise-wide compliance within an institution's larger risk management structure. Designed and presented by top experts, this conference addresses the full breadth and depth of compliance concerns with a comprehensiveness not found anywhere else: anti-money laundering and the BSA, Sarbanes-Oxley, HMDA, fair lending, privacy and information security, emerging payment issues, and more.
