

Info Security Products Guide names Zix Corporation's Email Encryption Service Winner of the 2006 Global Excellence in Encryption Award

ZixCorp gains the highest trust of customers worldwide

DALLAS — June 8, 2006 — Zix Corporation (ZixCorp®), (Nasdaq: ZIXI), the leader in hosted services for email encryption and e-prescribing, today announced that Info Security Products Guide, a Silicon Valley Communications publication and the world's leading publication on security-related products and technologies has named ZixCorp's email encryption service a winner of the Global Excellence in Encryption Customer Trust 2006 Award. This customer trust honor is the greatest endorsement to the fact that the company's enterprise-wide email encryption solution is ahead of the curve when it comes to products providing the best in security.

"More than 18,000 end-users and prospective customers from worldwide were invited to vote for the products they trust the most when it comes to protecting their digital resources. Zix Corporation's email encryption service provides the utmost in security and reliability for its users, as recognized by the readers of our publication," said Rick Justice, chief technology editor of Info Security Product News. "We are pleased to name ZixCorp to this year's list."

ZixCorp's encryption service is a server-based enterprise solution for organizations that require an email security and encryption. The service provides a secure messaging gateway without the need to create, deploy or manage end-user encryption keys and software. It offers send-to-anyone capability, corporate-defined policy management and remains transparent to end users. ZixCorp enables organizations to comply with industry regulations and/or corporate security policies with built-in lexicons that automatically encrypt messages. ZixVPM® provides a secure and private channel for email communications between employees, customers and business partners.

"Info Security Product Guide's recognition of ZixCorp's email encryption service further validates our product as an excellent, innovative and complete encryption solution, providing unsurpassed flexibility and ease-of-use," said Rick Spurr, chief executive officer of Zix Corporation. "Customer satisfaction is paramount to our success and we are pleased to have earned the trust and recognition from our customers."
