Cincinnati Financial Corporation Reports Hospitalization of Officer

Cincinnati, March 2, 2004—Cincinnati Financial Corporation reported that Senior Vice President Kenneth S. Miller, recently named chief investment officer, is hospitalized in critical condition and his vital signs are stable after an automobile accident in Fairfield, Ohio, on March 1.

“Ken is in good hands, and our focus is on supporting him and his family as he recovers,” said John J. Schiff, Jr., chairman and chief executive officer.

“In the interim, Ken’s investment department staff is transacting business as usual,” Schiff said. “Our portfolio managers and analysts regularly conduct investment department business, applying guidelines provided by the investment committee of the board of directors. We are fortunate to have talented associates in place who were trained and mentored for many years by Ken and by our previous chief investment officer.”
