Public Storage, Inc. Retains Goldman, Sachs & Co. as Financial Advisor

GLENDALE, California — Public Storage, Inc. (NYSE and PCX: PSA) announced today that it has retained Goldman, Sachs & Co. as financial advisor in connection with its previously announced proposal to acquire Shurgard Storage Centers, Inc. (NYSE: SHU).

“We remain convinced that the combination of Public Storage and Shurgard is clearly in the best interests of all Shurgard shareholders and are pleased to announce the addition of Goldman, Sachs & Co. to our team to help us effect this transaction,” said Ronald L. Havner, Jr., Chief Executive Officer of Public Storage. “Our proposal would provide Shurgard shareholders with the opportunity to participate in the long-term growth of the combined company. We are disappointed that Shurgard’s Board continues to refuse to sit down with us to explore the potential of a mutually beneficial transaction, despite the overwhelmingly positive response from shareholders and analysts to our proposal. It remains our preference to work cooperatively with Shurgard to effectuate this transaction.”

On August 1, 2005, PSA announced a proposal for the combination of PSA and SHU through a merger in which each share of SHU common stock would be exchanged for .80 shares of PSA common stock. Based on PSA’s close on Friday, July 29, 2005, the last day of trading prior to PSA’s announcement, the proposed transaction represented a 14% premium to SHU’s stock price.

On August 15, 2005, Standard & Poor’s announced that Public Storage will be added to the S&P 500 Index, after the close of trading on Thursday, August 18, 2005.

The Company previously noted that Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz is serving as legal counsel in connection with the proposed transaction.
