Public Storage and Shurgard Sign Confidentiality Agreement

GLENDALE, California – Public Storage, Inc. (NYSE and PCX:PSA) announced today that it has entered a confidentiality agreement with Shurgard Storage Centers, Inc. (NYSE:SHU). The agreement will allow Public Storage to participate in Shurgard's process of exploring its strategic alternatives, including a possible business combination with Public Storage. Pursuant to the agreement, Public Storage has agreed not to take certain actions with respect to an acquisition of Shurgard prior to April 27, 2006 without the approval of Shurgard. Such limitation on Public Storage will expire earlier upon the occurrence of certain events, including any business combination transaction between Shurgard and a third party and any unsolicited tender or exchange offer by a third party for Shurgard which is not rejected by Shurgard's board of directors. The confidentiality agreement does not limit or restrict Public Storage's ability to nominate persons for election as directors of Shurgard at the next annual or special meeting of shareholders called by Shurgard.

Goldman, Sachs & Co. and Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz are serving as financial advisor and legal counsel, respectively, to Public Storage.
