

Jeff DavisSenior Vice President, Finance & Strategy -- Operations

Jeff joined Walmart in 2006 as Vice President - Finance - Professional Services and Marketing. In April 2007, he was promoted to Vice President, Finance - Operations.

Jeff started his career in Public Accounting in 1984 with KPMG Peat Marwick, where he provided audit and tax services to primarily financial institutions. In 1987, he joined the Hillman Company (a Private-Investment Holding Company); over an 11 year period, Jeff held a number of finance positions with progressive responsibility in Operations Review (Internal Audit), Mergers and Acquisitions, Treasury and Private Equity Investment. In 1998, Jeff joined McKesson General Medical as its Chief Financial Officer. In 1999, he joined Lakeland Tours, LLC as Chief Financial Officer to lead its acquisition growth strategy. Jeff held responsibility for all accounting, financial reporting, treasury and capital structuring, strategic planning, legal and risk, operations and information systems functions.

Business and Professional Associations

- Certified Public Accountant, 1985
- Member of National Association of Black Accountants
- Board of Trustees, Collegiate Schools (Richmond, VA) 2004-2006

Education

- BS, Accounting, Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA
- EMBA, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA