GTECH SIGNS SIX-YEAR CONTRACT WITH THE CALIFORNIA LOTTERY FOR INSTANT TICKET PRINTING SERVICES

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND (US) December 13, 2013 – GTECH Corporation has been awarded a six-year instant ticket printing contract with the California Lottery following a competitive procurement. Under the terms of the contract, which commenced on December 1, 2013, GTECH will be a secondary provider of instant tickets and related services to the California Lottery.

"GTECH looks forward to furthering our relationship with the California Lottery," said Alan Eland, GTECH Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, North America. "Instant tickets are a major contributor to sales growth for the California Lottery. We are pleased that the California Lottery recognizes the value GTECH brings in terms of game design expertise and an extensive games library, and we look forward to offering new game ideas to maximize the Lottery's sales potential."

The base contract will run through November 30, 2019 and has the option for the Lottery to extend up to an additional three years. Following the three-year extension, the California Lottery may unilaterally extend the contract up to three additional times for up to one year each.
