GTECH SIGNS THREE-YEAR CONTRACT WITH LOTERIA NACIONAL DE NICARAGUA FOR INSTANT-TICKET PRINTING SERVICES

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND (US) October 17, 2013 – GTECH Corporation has entered into a three-year instant-ticket printing contract with Loteria Nacional de Nicaragua following a competitive procurement. Under the contract, GTECH will continue to provide instant-ticket printing and related services to the Lottery through July 4, 2016. This contract represents a 33% increase in ticket production from the previous instant-ticket contract awarded to GTECH by the Lottery in 2009. Printing for Lotería Nacional de Nicaragua will take place at GTECH's instant-ticket facility in Lakeland, Florida.

Lotería Nacional de Nicaragua has been a valued customer of GTECH since 2009. Since that time, GTECH has supported the Lottery with a pricing, product layout, and prize structure strategy. Additionally, instant-ticket sales have more than doubled since GTECH began printing the Lottery's instant tickets in 2009.

"We are pleased that the National Lottery of Nicaragua has again chosen GTECH for its instant-ticket program," said Alan Eland, Senior Vice President & Chief Operating Officer, GTECH North America. "We remain committed to expanding our presence in international markets and look forward to continued growth in support of the Lottery's mission of generating financial resources through the sale of lottery products, helping to fund governmental projects and social programs targeting the most vulnerable sectors in Nicaragua."
