NEWS RELEASE

GTECH SIGNS TWO-YEAR CONTRACT EXTENSION WITH THE WISCONSIN LOTTERY

ROME ITALY and PROVIDENCE RHODE ISLAND (US) July 3, 2013– GTECH S.p.A. announced that its subsidiary GTECH Corporation (GTECH) has signed a two-year contract extension with the Wisconsin Lottery to continue providing lottery technology and related support services through June 25, 2015. GTECH expects to receive revenues in the range of $25 million - $27 million over the two-year term. The Wisconsin Lottery has been a valued GTECH customer since the Lottery's inception in 1988.

"Putting our customers first is a top priority at GTECH," said President and CEO of GTECH Americas Jaymin B. Patel. "The Wisconsin Lottery has experienced year-over-year total sales growth since 2009. We attribute much of that success to the close partnership we have developed with the Wisconsin Lottery since 1988, and very much appreciate their vote of confidence with this extension. We look forward to continued growth in sales in support of the Lottery's mission of achieving the highest possible revenue for property tax relief for the citizens of Wisconsin."

Under the terms of the extension agreement, GTECH will continue to provide the Wisconsin Lottery with a variety of ongoing services, including the operation and maintenance of the online and instant-ticket central system, lottery terminals and communications network; field services; marketing support; and hotline operations.
