Global Sources has been hosting trade shows at AWE since 2006 and has brought more than 2 million buyers and exhibitors to visit Hong Kong over the past decade. The Company’s fall series of shows held in October featured more than 8,500 booths and attracted more than 79,000 buyers from 153 countries and territories to attend. In 2016 alone, Global Sources exhibitions contributed approximately HK$2.75 billion to Hong Kong’s economy.

The company’s flagship show, Global Sources Electronics, is the world’s largest electronics sourcing event and the launch pad for some of the world’s most cutting-edge electronics products. It is also Asia’s premier and most anticipated sourcing event for global electronics buyers.

Craig Pepples, Global Sources’ Deputy CEO, said: “Global Sources is focused on connecting buyers worldwide with suppliers in mainland China and Asia through our integrated offering of online marketplaces and trade shows. The new contracts reaffirm our mission to facilitate profitable global trade as well as our continuing commitment to Hong Kong’s economy and strengthen the role of the city as Asia’s trade show capital.”

Global Sources hosts its trade shows twice a year – in April and October – at AWE, covering product categories that include electronics, gifts and premiums, home products and fashion items. The Global Sources Electronics show also features Startup Launchpad - a conference program and pavilion which is Asia’s largest consumer electronics hardware startup event.
