- A. The Committee shall be comprised of two or more members of the Board of Directors; subject to an election by the Corporation to rely on the exemption available to controlled companies and the transition periods applicable to initial public offerings, each member shall be determined by the Board to be “independent” under the applicable rules of the New York Stock Exchange.
- B. The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors, shall serve until such member’s successor is duly elected and qualified or until such member’s earlier resignation or removal, and may be removed, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

members) will be a “Non-employee Director” for purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and (ii) each member of the Committee (or each member of a designated subcommittee thereof consisting of two or more members) will be an “outside director” within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations and guidance promulgated thereunder; provided, however, that the foregoing requirement shall not apply at any such time as there exists a separate committee of the Board composed of two or more members where each member qualifies as a “Non-Employee Director” and an “outside director” as described above; and provided further, that, pursuant to the exemption provided under Treasury Regulation Section 1.162-27(f) for a corporation that was not a publicly held corporation and then becomes a publicly held corporation, for such time as the Corporation may avail itself of the “reliance period” under such Treasury Regulation with respect to remuneration paid pursuant to a compensation plan or agreement that existed during the period in which the corporation was not publicly held, the Committee (or the designated subcommittee thereof or the separate committee of the Board) shall not be required to consist solely of two or more “outside directors” within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations and guidance promulgated thereunder.

- D. In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee shall be authorized and entitled to delegate any or all of its responsibilities and powers and authority to a subcommittee of the Committee; provided, however, that when appropriate, it is expected that any such subcommittee shall be composed solely of two or more members that have been determined to be a “non-employee director” within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and/or to satisfy the requirements of an “outside director” within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.
