About Vocus

Vocus Communications Limited ("Vocus", ASX: VOC) is a provider of fibre, data centre, unified comms and cloud services to corporate and government entities. In February 2016, Vocus merged with M2 Group Ltd, to create the fourth largest telco in Australia and the third largest in New Zealand, with revenues of approximately $1.8 billion. The merger takes Vocus into supply of broadband, fixed voice, mobile, data centre, cloud and energy services to consumer and business segments through the well-recognised Commander, Dodo and iPrimus brands.
