NEWS RELEASE

AUSTRALIA-SINO HUNDRED YEAR AGRICULTURAL & FOOD SAFETY PARTNERSHIP

Singapore, 30 July 2014 - Wilmar International Limited ("Wilmar") refers to the Australia-Sino Hundred Year Agricultural and Food Safety Partnership ("ASA 100 Initiative"), initiated by Mr Andrew Forrest, founder and Chairman of Fortescue Metals Group and is pleased to announce its support for the ASA 100 Initiative. At the invitation of Mr Forrest, who has invited leading agriculture and food companies in China to join this initiative which will allow consumers in China to access quality agricultural products from Australia, Wilmar looks forward to playing a role to establish this important platform beneficial to both Chinese and Australian industry players.

ABOUT WILMAR

Wilmar International Limited, founded in 1991 and headquartered in Singapore, is today Asia's leading agribusiness group. Wilmar is ranked amongst the largest listed companies by market capitalisation on the Singapore Exchange.

Wilmar's business activities include oil palm cultivation, oilseed crushing, edible oils refining, sugar milling and refining, specialty fats, oleochemical, biodiesel and fertiliser manufacturing, and grain processing.

At the core of Wilmar's strategy is a resilient integrated agribusiness model that encompasses the entire value chain of the agricultural commodity processing business, from origination and processing to branding, merchandising and distribution of a wide range of agricultural products. It has over 450 manufacturing plants and an extensive distribution network covering China, India, Indonesia and some 50 other countries. The Group is backed by a multinational workforce of about 90,000 people.

Wilmar's portfolio of high quality processed agricultural products is the preferred choice of the food manufacturing industry, as well as the industrial and consumer food businesses. Its consumer-packed products occupy a leading share in its targeted markets. Through scale, integration and the logistical advantages of its business model, Wilmar is able to extract margins at every step of the value chain, thereby reaping operational synergies and cost efficiencies.

Wilmar remains a firm advocate of sustainable growth and is committed to its role as a responsible corporate citizen.
