

Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik wins a prestigious award for Best Luxury Coastal Resort in Europe

Date: Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik, a luxury five-star resort, is proud to announce that it has been named Best Luxury Coastal Resort in Europe at the prestigious 2013 World Luxury Travel Awards (WLTA). The award, received by the hospitality and real estate destination, confirms the resort's leading position in the hotel industry in Croatia and central and south eastern Europe.

This accolade not only affirms Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik's status as the best resort in Croatia, but also underscores its impressive international reputation. In particular, its dedication to maintaining the highest industry standards, and its commitment to providing the best service and quality to its guests, have been recognised.

The World Luxury Travel Awards were established in 2006 with the goal of identifying the world's most luxurious hotels that stand out in providing excellence to their guests. Julian Houchin, Commercial Director of developers iOAdria comments on winning; "We are delighted to have received an award for the second consecutive year further underpinning our determination and commitment to be recognised as one of Europe's best coastal resorts".

This award is just one of many indicators of excellence for Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik thanks to its coveted blend of tranquil luxury and consummate service levels. The professional attitude and service-oriented culture of its staff, meant that Sun Gardens Dubrovnik was awarded the Tripadvisor Certificate of Excellence for 2013: a title only extended to 10% of the world's finest hotels, which consistently maintain high scores in all aspects of service delivery according to Tripadvisor users.

Other resort awards include Best Croatian Resort at the International Hotel Awards 2012, Best International Spa Resort at the Spa Traveller Awards 2012 and a gold award for two consecutive years at the Overseas Property Professional Awards for Excellence in the category of Best Developer in Southern Europe.

Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik has a business philosophy that is focused on continuously delivering excellence to its guests and offering a contemporary approach to design coupled with innovative thinking. The resort is also one of the few destinations in the country that offers not only superior accommodation but also the opportunity to purchase freehold real estate within an established resort.

Note to editors:

Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik is a five-star resort located on the coast just outside of Dubrovnik Old Town, which is on the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites. The resort is one of the few destinations in Croatia that offers not only hotel services, but also the opportunity to purchase freehold residences. The resort has one of the best conference centers in the region; it also offers a world class spa and wellness center by OCCO, sports center, 13 bars and restaurants, beach and three swimming pools.

For additional information and press please contact:

Ines Šimunović

Marketing and PR department

Tel: + 385 20 361 652

E-mail: ines.simunovic@dubrovniksungardens.hr

www.dubrovniksungardens.com

www.radissonblu.com/resort-dubrovnik