Melco wins Green Booth Award at 2019MIECF

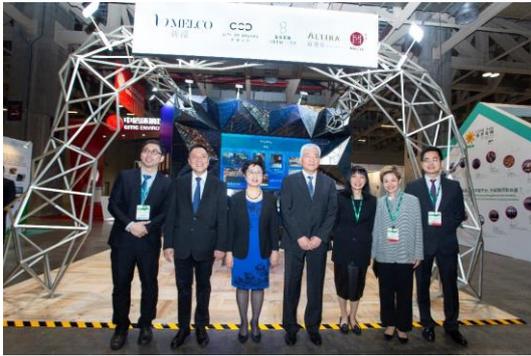

Only integrated resort operator to support green event as a prime exhibitor

Macau, Friday, March 29, 2019 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment Limited is honoured to announce that the Company has been awarded the Green Booth Award at the 2019 Macao International Environmental Co-operation Forum & Exhibition (2019MIECF). Melco, the sole integrated resort operator to support the event as a prime exhibitor, garnered the award for its booth’s original design concept which was themed with Morpheus’ iconic architectural elements. Promoting environmental awareness, the booth’s décor featured a combination of solar panels and upcycled resort amenities.

Representing Melco as one of the 2019MIECF forum guest panelists was Ms. Denise Chen, Senior Vice President and Chief Sustainability Officer of the Company. Ms. Chen shared elements of Melco’s sustainability strategy, focusing on the impact of its installation of Macau’s largest solar power system and the Company’s numerous energy saving initiatives.

Mr. Lawrence Ho, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Melco Resorts & Entertainment, said, “As one of Macau’s largest integrated resort operators we recognize the necessity for the industry to address and take action with regard to the environment conservation for not only today but also for future generations. Further to our recent sign up to The New Plastics Economy Global Commitment spearheaded by Ellen MacArthur Foundation and in collaboration with U.N. Environment, we are thrilled to continue supporting the Macao SAR government-hosted 2019MIECF. We are proud to be a prime exhibitor, highlighting the importance of developing and implementing sustainability efforts, initiatives which are integral to our Corporate Social Responsibility plan. The event provides a platform for us to communicate Melco’s latest initiatives with businesses, universities and research institutions, as we continue to contribute to Macau’s reputation as the global capital for green tourism.”
