Melco announces payment increase for non-management employees

Discretionary bonus to all eligible non-management employees has been distributed ahead of Lunar New Year

Macau, Thursday, January 31, 2019 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment today announced a pay increase for non-management employees ranging between 7.5% and 2.5% will be effective April 1, 2019. Eligible full-time non-management employees earning a monthly base salary (including tips) less than or equal to MOP 13,000 will receive a base salary increase of MOP 600 per month, and employees earning a monthly base salary (including tips) over MOP 13,000 will receive an increase of 2.5%. Ahead of the Lunar New Year, a one month discretionary bonus, announced earlier this month, has been paid to eligible non-management employees.

Mr. Lawrence Ho, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Melco Resorts & Entertainment said, “We thank our colleagues for their continued dedication. Together as a team, we strive to bring world-class, memorable entertainment, hospitality and dining experiences to our guests in Macau, to contribute to the exciting advancements in the Greater Bay Area.”
