GLP ESTABLISHES FUND MANAGEMENT BOARD

- Helmed by distinguished industry leaders Dr. Seek Ngee Huat, Graeme Eadie and Dr. Richard Levin
- Fund management board enhances GLP's governance and risk management infrastructure to support continued growth

27 November 2018 – GLP, the leading global provider of modern logistics facilities and technology-led solutions, has established a fund management board composed of senior industry figures, enhancing the Company's governance and risk management infrastructure as GLP continues to strategically grow its fund management platform.

GLP's fund management board is chaired by former GLP Chairman Dr. Seek Ngee Huat, who has a distinguished career in the global real estate industry, spanning more than 40 years. Dr. Seek is joined on the fund management board by industry veterans Graeme Eadie and Dr. Richard Levin. Graeme Eadie has decades of experience leading one of the world's largest real estate and infrastructure asset managers while Dr. Levin, a respected economist, served 20 years as the President of Yale University and oversaw the growth of Yale's endowment from US$3 billion to US$20 billion.

Ming Mei, Co-Founder and CEO of GLP, said: "I am pleased to announce the formation of our fund management board. The global insights and industry visibility of our directors will provide a valuable business perspective as we advance GLP's global growth strategy in real estate, private equity and infrastructure to continue creating exceptional value for our investors."

Dr. Seek Ngee Huat, Chairman of GLP's fund management board, said: "I am delighted to chair GLP's fund management board alongside distinguished industry leaders Graeme and Rick. We look forward to offering our experience and expertise to help the Company strategically grow its platform over the long-term."
