

JUNO THERAPEUTICS, INC.
NOMINATING AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

This Nominating and Governance Committee Charter (this “Charter”) was adopted by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Juno Therapeutics, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), on October 14, 2014, and amended February 2, 2016.

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Nominating and Governance Committee (the “Committee”) is to ensure that the Board is properly constituted to meet its fiduciary obligations to stockholders and to the Company and that the Company has and follows appropriate corporate governance standards. To carry out this purpose, the Committee shall:

- (a) assist the Board in identifying individuals who are qualified to become members of the Board in accordance with criteria approved by the Board and select, or recommend to the Board that the Board select, specified individuals as the director nominees for each meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected;
- (b) recommend members for each Board committee;
- (c) develop and recommend to the Board corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company; and
- (d) oversee the evaluation of the performance of the Board and its committees.

In addition to the specific powers and responsibilities delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee shall also carry out and may exercise any other powers or responsibilities as are assigned by law, the Company’s charter or bylaws or as may be delegated to it by the Board from time to time.

2. MEMBERSHIP

The Committee shall consist of at least two members of the Board, who shall not have a relationship with the Company or its affiliates that may interfere with the exercise of their independence, and shall otherwise be deemed “Independent Directors” as defined by the listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (“NASDAQ”), subject to any available exceptions and transition periods under such requirements, and such other qualifications as may be established by the Board from time to time.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Committee. Unless a Chairperson of the Committee is designated by the Board, the Committee may designate a Chairperson by a majority vote of the full Committee membership. Committee members may be removed from the Committee, with or without cause, by the Board.

3. MEETINGS AND PROCEDURES

The Committee shall meet as often as it deems necessary or appropriate in order to fulfill its responsibilities, but will meet at least two times per year. The Committee may meet either in person or telephonically, and at such times and places as the Committee determines. The Chairperson of the Committee shall preside at each meeting. If a Chairperson is not designated or present, an acting Chairperson may be designated by the Committee members present. The Committee may act by written consent (which may include electronic consent), which shall constitute a valid action of the Committee if it has been executed by each member of the Committee and shows the date of execution.

All non-management directors that are not members of the Committee may attend and observe meetings of the Committee but may not vote and shall not participate in any discussion or deliberation unless invited to do so by the Committee. The Committee may, at its discretion, include in its meetings members of the Company's management or any other personnel employed or retained by the Company or any other persons whose presence the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate, other than members of the Committee.

4. MINUTES

The Committee shall maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board. Any written consent will be effective on the date of the last signature and will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

5. REPORTS

The Committee shall report regularly to the Board on the actions and recommendations of the Committee. Consistent with this charter, the Committee shall report to the Board regarding its recommendations for director nominees for the next annual meeting of stockholders or any special meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected or to fill vacancies or newly created directorships on the Board or committees. In addition, the Committee shall report regularly to the Board (a) regarding its review and assessment of corporate governance matters and such other matters as are relevant to the Committee's discharge of its responsibilities and (b) regarding such recommendations as the Committee may deem appropriate. The report to the Board may take the form of an oral report by the Chairperson or any other member of the Nominating and Governance Committee designated by the Nominating and Governance Committee to make such report.

6. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The responsibilities and duties of the Committee shall include:

(a) Corporate Governance Generally

(i) developing and recommending to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company, and recommending changes to the Board as necessary;

(ii) reviewing proposed changes to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws and making recommendations to the Board;

(iii) determining the manner in which stockholders may send communications to the Board (as a whole or individually), as well as the process by which stockholder communications will be relayed to the Board and what the Board's response, if any, should be;

(iv) reviewing periodically the succession planning for the Chief Executive Officer, reporting its findings and recommendations to the Board, and assist the Board in evaluating potential successors to the Chief Executive Officer;

(v) reviewing any proposals properly submitted by stockholders for action at meetings of stockholders and make recommendations to the Board regarding action to be taken in response to each such proposal;

(vi) ensuring compliance with any stockholders agreement to which the Company is a party (as such may be amended from time to time) governing the composition of the Board, to the extent such a stockholders agreement is in place;

(vii) overseeing compliance by the Board and its committees with applicable laws and regulations, including those promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and the applicable rules; and

(viii) reviewing its own charter and processes annually.

(b) Board Composition, Evaluation and Nominating Activities

(i) overseeing the Board’s annual performance and self-evaluation process, including, without limitation, conducting surveys of director observations, suggestions and preferences regarding how effectively the Board and each committee operates; reporting its conclusions from the evaluation process, including an assessment of the Board’s and the committees’ compliance with the principles set forth in the corporate governance guidelines and in the relevant committee charters, as well as identification of areas in which the Board and the committees could improve performance;

(ii) reviewing and making recommendations to the Board regarding the composition and size of the Board and determine the relevant criteria (including any minimum qualifications) for Board membership including issues of character, integrity, judgment, diversity, age, independence, skills, education, expertise, business acumen, business experience, length of service, understanding of the Company’s business, other commitments and the like;

(iii) evaluating the “independence” of directors and director nominees against applicable rules and regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission, NASDAQ and other applicable laws;

(iv) establishing procedures for the submission of candidates for election to the Board (including recommendations by stockholders of the Company);

(v) establishing procedures for identifying and evaluating nominees for Director;

(vi) reviewing and recommending candidates, including candidates recommended by the stockholders, for election to the Board at the annual meeting of stockholders or any special meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected, in compliance with the Company’s policies and procedures for consideration of Board candidates;

(vii) identifying, considering and recommending candidates to fill new positions or vacancies on the Board;

(viii) considering the Board’s leadership structure, including the separation of the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer roles and/or appointment of a lead independent director of the Board, either permanently or for specific purposes, and make such recommendations to the Board with respect thereto as the Committee deems appropriate.

(ix) evaluating and recommending termination of membership of individual directors for cause or for other appropriate reasons;

(x) reviewing the disclosure included in the Company's proxy statement regarding the Company's director nomination process and other corporate governance matters; and

(xi) overseeing the orientation and continuing education activities for Board members and evaluating the participation of members of the Board in such activities in accordance with applicable listing standards.

(c) Board Committees

(i) periodically reviewing the charter and composition of each Board committee and making recommendations to the Board for the creation of additional Board committees or the change in mandate or dissolution of Board committees; and

(ii) recommending to the Board persons to be members and chairpersons of the various Board committees.

The Committee may perform such other functions as are consistent with its purpose and applicable law, rules and regulations and as the Board or the Committee deem appropriate. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances.

7. SUBCOMMITTEES

The Committee may form subcommittees for any purpose that the Committee deems appropriate and may delegate to such subcommittees such power and authority as the Committee deems appropriate. If designated, each such subcommittee will establish its own schedule and maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the board. The Committee shall not delegate to a subcommittee any power or authority required by law, regulation or listing standard to be exercised by the Committee as a whole.

8. COMPENSATION

Members of the Committee shall receive such fees, if any, for their service as Committee members as may be determined by the Board in its sole discretion.

9. EVALUATION OF PERFORMANCE OF NOMINATING AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall evaluate its own performance on an annual basis, including its compliance with this Charter, and provide any written material with respect to such evaluation to the Board, including any recommendations for changes in procedures or policies governing the Committee. The Committee shall also review and reassess this Charter at least annually and submit any recommended changes to the Board for its consideration.

10. AUTHORITY TO RETAIN ADVISORS

In performing its responsibilities, the Committee shall have the authority to engage and obtain advice, reports or opinions from internal or independent counsel and other expert advisors, as it determines necessary or appropriate, to carry out its duties. The Committee shall have sole authority to retain and terminate search firms that are engaged to assist in identifying director candidates and setting non-employee director compensation, including sole authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms. The Company will provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, to pay any such search firms or any other outside advisors hired by the Committee and any administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its activities.

11. PUBLICATION OF CHARTER

This Charter will be made available on the Company's website and to any stockholder who otherwise requests a copy. The Company's Annual Report to Stockholders or proxy statement shall state the foregoing.
