

SARBANES-OXLEY WHISTLEBLOWER HOTLINE

In support of Spherion's commitment to integrity in its business practices, Spherion has established a dedicated toll-free number so that concerns regarding Spherion's accounting and auditing practices, including internal controls as well as other corporate governance issues may be reported. The hotline is available 24 hours a day/7 days a week. The reports regarding accounting and auditing practices will be presented to our Audit Committee and the reports regarding corporate governance matters will be presented to our non-management directors. The toll-free number is 800-944-9944. Reports can also be sent via email at sarbaneshotline@spherion.com.

All reports can be made anonymously. If you prefer, we encourage you to leave your name and contact information so that we may follow-up with you.

Thank you.
