
BARCLAYS GLOBAL INVESTORS

LEE T. KRANEFUSS
CEO, Intermediary and Exchange Traded Funds Business
Managing Director

Lee Kranefuss is the Chief Executive Officer for BGI's Intermediary and Exchange Traded Funds Business, where he is responsible for BGI's ETFs in the US and Europe, as well as BGI's traditional mutual funds. Lee joined BGI in 1997 after spending six years with The Boston Consulting Group in San Francisco, where he focused on consulting to retail and institutional financial service clients. Prior to that he spent five years in the technology industry. Lee has a BS in electrical engineering from Cornell University. He holds an MBA degree in finance from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania where he graduated with distinction as a Palmer Scholar.