WYNDHAM'S GRAND BAY- COCONUT GROVE AND BICE RESTAURANT RECEIVE AAA FOUR DIAMOND HONORS

COCONUT GROVE, FLA. (Feb. 5, 2003) - The Wyndham Grand Bay – Coconut Grove has been awarded the 2003 AAA Four Diamond Awards for lodging and Bice Restaurant, located within the hotel, has been recognized with the AAA Four Diamond Award for dining. The 177-room-and-suite boutique hotel is one of only an elite few in South Florida to receive these esteemed awards for both accommodations and dining from the American Automobile Association.

“We are honored to receive this recognition and feel it conveys our team’s commitment to providing customized and memorable experiences for each guest who visits us,” said Carlos Molinet, general manager of the Wyndham Grand Bay. “This award also demonstrates our dedication to Wyndham’s brand philosophy of personalized service.”

The AAA rates lodging establishments and restaurants based on a set of international standards, including the level of staff experience, décor, comfort and service. These awards are some of the most exalted honors bestowed in the hospitality industry.

Nestled among the elegant surrounds of Coconut Grove – one of Miami’s most prestigious areas – Wyndham Grand Bay overlooks the azure waters of Biscayne Bay, and is visited by countless celebrities, politicians, corporate executives and other discerning travelers. Hotel features include designer-appointed, oversized guestrooms and suites, original artwork, valet parking, concierge, 24-hour room service, a state-of-the-art fitness center, and a lush tropical courtyard with pool and whirlpool spa. A deluxe 4,000 square-foot penthouse – The Top of the Grand – includes artfully landscaped outdoor terraces, perfect for receptions and banquets for up to 200 people.
