(a) Reflects Loews Corporation's sale of 15 million shares of Carolina Group stock in May of 2006 and 10 million shares in November of 2005. Net income per share of Carolina Group stock was not impacted by these sales.

Three Months Ended June 30, 2006 Compared With 2005

Net income attributable to Loews common stock for the second quarter of 2006 amounted to $474.9 million or $0.85 per share, compared to $379.9 million or $0.68 per share in the comparable period of the prior year. The increase in net income was primarily due to improved results at the Company's 54% owned subsidiary, Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc. and increased investment income. The results for the second quarter of 2005 included a benefit of $109.2 million related to a federal income tax settlement due primarily to net refund interest and the release of federal income tax reserves at the Company's 91% owned subsidiary, CNA Financial Corporation.

Net income attributable to Loews common stock includes net investment losses of $55.0 million (after tax and minority interest) compared to net investment gains of $19.5 million (after tax and minority interest) in the comparable period of the prior year.

Net income attributable to Carolina Group stock for the second quarter of 2006 was $93.8 million or $1.09 per Carolina Group share, compared to $55.7 million, or $0.82 per Carolina Group share in the second quarter of 2005. The increase in net income attributable to Carolina Group stock for the second quarter of 2006 is primarily due to higher effective unit prices reflecting lower sales promotion expenses (accounted for as a reduction to net sales) and reflects an increase in the amount of Carolina Group shares outstanding. The Company is issuing a separate press release reporting the results of the Carolina Group for the second quarter of 2006.

Consolidated revenues in the second quarter of 2006 amounted to $4.3 billion, compared to $4.0 billion in the comparable 2005 quarter.

Six Months Ended June 30, 2006 Compared With 2005

Net income attributable to Loews common stock amounted to $948.3 million, or $1.70 per share, in the first half of 2006 compared to $679.7 million, or $1.22 per share, in the comparable period of the prior year. Net income attributable to Loews common stock includes net investment losses of $58.6 million (after tax and minority interest) compared to net investment gains of $4.7 million (after tax and minority interest) in the comparable period of the prior year. The results for the six months ended June 30, 2005 included a benefit of $109.2 million from a federal income tax settlement discussed above. The increase in net income was primarily due to improved results at the Company's 54% owned subsidiary, Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc. and increased investment income.

Net income attributable to Carolina Group stock for the first half of 2006 was $161.4 million or $1.96 per Carolina Group share, compared to $102.2 million, or $1.50 per Carolina Group share in the comparable period of the prior year. The increase in net income attributable to Carolina Group stock is primarily due to higher effective unit prices reflecting lower sales promotion expenses (accounted for as a reduction to net sales) and reflects an increase in the amount of Carolina Group shares outstanding.

Consolidated revenues in the first half of 2006 amounted to $8.5 billion, compared to $7.8 billion in the comparable period of the prior year.

At June 30, 2006, there were 550,701,207 shares of Loews common stock outstanding and 93,291,246 shares of Carolina Group stock outstanding. During the three months ended June 30, 2006, the Company purchased 5,548,800 shares of Loews common stock at an aggregate cost of $188.8 million. Depending on market conditions, the Company from time to time purchases shares of its, and its subsidiaries', outstanding common stock in the open market or otherwise.

The Company has two classes of common stock, Carolina Group stock, a tracking stock intended to reflect the economic performance of a group of the Company's assets and liabilities, called the Carolina Group, principally consisting of the Company's subsidiary Lorillard, Inc. and Loews common stock, representing the economic performance of the Company's remaining assets, including the interest in the Carolina Group not represented by Carolina Group stock. At June 30, 2006, the outstanding Carolina Group stock represents a 53.7% economic interest in the economic performance of the Carolina Group.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAROLINA GROUP REPORTS NET INCOME
FOR THE SECOND QUARTER OF 2006

NEW YORK, August 1, 2006—Loews Corporation (NYSE:LTR) today reported Carolina Group net income for the 2006 second quarter of $187.2 million, compared to $142.1 million in the 2005 second quarter. Net income attributable to Carolina Group stock (NYSE:CG) for the second quarter of 2006 was $93.8 million, or $1.09 per share of Carolina Group stock, compared to $55.7 million, or $0.82 per share in the comparable period of the prior year.

The increase in net income attributable to Carolina Group stock for the second quarter of 2006, as compared to the corresponding period of the prior year, is primarily due to higher effective unit prices reflecting lower sales promotion expenses (accounted for as a reduction to net sales) and reflects an increase in the amount of Carolina Group shares outstanding. Carolina Group stock represents a 50.09% and 39.22% economic interest in the Carolina Group for the three months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Loews Corporation sold 15 million shares of Carolina Group stock in May of 2006 and 10 million shares in November of 2005. Net income per share of Carolina Group stock was not impacted by the sale of Carolina Group shares.

Net sales for the Carolina Group were $977.3 million in the second quarter of 2006, compared to $928.3 million in the 2005 second quarter.

Carolina Group net income for the first half of 2006 was $337.3 million, compared to $260.6 million in the 2005 first half. Net income attributable to Carolina Group stock for the first half of 2006 was $161.4 million, or $1.96 per share of Carolina Group stock, compared to $102.2 million, or $1.50 per share in the comparable period of the prior year. The increase in net income attributable to Carolina Group stock is primarily due to higher effective unit prices reflecting lower sales promotion expenses (accounted for as a reduction to net sales) and reflects the May of 2006 and November of 2005 sales by Loews Corporation of Carolina Group stock discussed above.

Net sales for the Carolina Group were $1.832 billion in the first half of 2006, compared to $1.723 billion in the comparable period of the prior year.

Results of operations of the Carolina Group include interest expense of $18.1, $21.0, $37.4 and $43.4 million, net of taxes, for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively, on notional intergroup debt. At June 30, 2006, $1.46 billion principal amount of notional intergroup debt was outstanding.

The Carolina Group stock, commonly called a tracking stock, is intended to reflect the economic performance of a defined group of the Company's assets and liabilities, referred to as the Carolina Group, principally consisting of the Company's subsidiary Lorillard, Inc. The Carolina Group, a notional group, is not a separate legal entity. The purpose of this financial information is to provide investors with additional information to use in analyzing the results of operations and financial condition of the Carolina Group, and this financial information should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial information of Loews Corporation.

As of June 30, 2006 there were 93,291,246 shares of Carolina Group stock outstanding representing a 53.7% economic interest. Depending on market conditions, the Company, for the account of the Carolina Group, from time to time may purchase shares of Carolina Group stock in the open market or otherwise.

###

A separate press release reporting Loews Corporation's consolidated results for the second quarter of 2006 is being issued contemporaneously with this report.

A conference call to discuss the second quarter results of Loews Corporation has been scheduled for 11:00 a.m. EDT, Tuesday, August 1, 2006. A live broadcast of the call will be available online at the Loews Corporation website (www.loews.com). Please go to the website at least ten minutes before the event begins to register and to download and install any necessary audio software.
