(a) Reflects Loews Corporation's sale of 10,000,000 shares of Carolina Group stock in November of 2005. Net income per share of Carolina Group stock was not impacted by this sale.

Net income attributable to Loews common stock for the first quarter of 2006 amounted to $473.4 million, or $2.54 per share, compared to $299.8 million, or $1.62 per share, in the comparable period of the prior year. The increase in net income was primarily due to improved results at the Company's 54% owned subsidiary, Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc. and increased investment income.

Net income attributable to Loews common stock includes net investment losses of $3.6 million (after tax and minority interest) compared to net investment losses of $14.8 million (after tax and minority interest) in the comparable period of the prior year.

Net income attributable to Carolina Group stock for the first quarter of 2006 was $67.6 million, or $0.86 per Carolina Group share, compared to $46.5 million, or $0.68 per Carolina Group share, in the first quarter of 2005. The increase in net income attributable to Carolina Group stock for the first quarter of 2006 is due to improved overall results of the Carolina Group and reflects the increase in the amount of Carolina Group shares. The Company is issuing a separate press release reporting the results of the Carolina Group for the first quarter of 2006.

Consolidated revenues in the first quarter of 2006 amounted to $4.2 billion, compared to $3.7 billion in the comparable 2005 quarter.

At March 31, 2006, there were 185,395,033 shares of Loews common stock outstanding and 78,278,496 shares of Carolina Group stock outstanding. During the three months ended March 31, 2006, the Company purchased 558,400 shares of Loews common stock at an aggregate cost of $55.7 million. Depending on market conditions, the Company purchases, from time to time in the open market or otherwise, shares of its and its subsidiaries' outstanding common stock.

On April 11, 2006, the Company announced that its Board of Directors declared a three-for-one stock split of Loews common stock, by way of a stock dividend, to shareholders of record on April 24, 2006. Each holder of record on that date will receive two additional shares of Loews common stock for each share owned. The new shares are expected to be distributed on or about May 8, 2006. The stock split will increase the number of shares of common stock outstanding from approximately 185.4 million shares to approximately 556.2 million shares. The pro forma earnings per share of Loews common stock, giving retroactive effect to the stock split, is as follows:

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2006	2005
Diluted net income per share of Loews common stock – as reported	$ 2.54	$ 1.62
Diluted net income per share of Loews common stock – after stock split	0.85	0.54

The Company has two classes of common stock, Carolina Group stock, a tracking stock intended to reflect the economic performance of a group of the Company's assets and liabilities, called the Carolina Group, principally consisting of the Company's subsidiary Lorillard, Inc., and Loews common stock, representing the economic performance of the Company's remaining assets, including the interest in the Carolina Group not represented by Carolina Group stock. At March 31, 2006, the outstanding Carolina Group stock represented a 45.06% interest in the economic performance of the Carolina Group.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAROLINA GROUP REPORTS NET INCOME
FOR THE FIRST QUARTER OF 2006

NEW YORK, May 2, 2006—Loews Corporation (NYSE:LTR;CG) today reported Carolina Group net income for the 2006 first quarter of $150.1 million, compared to $118.5 million in the 2005 first quarter. Net income attributable to Carolina Group stock for the first quarter of 2006 was $67.6 million, or $0.86 per share of Carolina Group stock, compared to $46.5 million, or $0.68 per share in the comparable period of the prior year.

The increase in net income attributable to Carolina Group stock for the first quarter of 2006, as compared to the comparable period of the prior year, is due to improved overall results of the Carolina Group and reflects an increase in the amount of Carolina Group shares. Carolina Group stock represents a 45.04% and 39.20% economic interest in the Carolina Group for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Loews Corporation sold 10,000,000 shares of Carolina Group stock in November of 2005. Net income per share of Carolina Group stock was not impacted by the sale of Carolina Group shares.

Net sales for the Carolina Group were $854.8 million in the first quarter of 2006, compared to $795.1 million in the 2005 first quarter, reflecting a decrease in sales promotion expenses (accounted for as a reduction in net sales) and an increase in unit sales volume of 3.3%.

Results of operations of the Carolina Group include interest expense of $19.3 million and $22.4 million, net of taxes, for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively, on notional intergroup debt. At March 31, 2006, $1.53 billion principal amount of notional intergroup debt was outstanding.

The Carolina Group stock, commonly called a tracking stock, is intended to reflect the economic performance of a defined group of the Company's assets and liabilities, referred to as the Carolina Group, principally consisting of the Company's subsidiary Lorillard, Inc. The Carolina Group, a notional group, is not a separate legal entity. The purpose of this financial information is to provide investors with additional information to use in analyzing the results of operations and financial condition of the Carolina Group, and this financial information should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial information of Loews Corporation.

As of March 31, 2006, there were 78,278,496 shares of Carolina Group stock outstanding representing a 45.06% economic interest. Depending on market conditions, the Company may purchase, from time to time in the open market or otherwise, shares of Carolina Group stock for the Carolina Group account.
