Citrix products

The Citrix Access Platform, Citrix's portfolio of solutions for on-demand access, provides a consistent and integrated infrastructure that can accommodate every access scenario. Each product is purpose-built to solve a particular access challenge, and also designed to work with the others.

Citrix Partner Network

The Citrix® Partner Network is designed to help partners engage with Citrix to deliver high levels of customer satisfaction in access infrastructure solutions. This network encompasses Citrix® Alliance Partners, Citrix® Solution Advisors, and Citrix Certified™ and Education Professionals. With more than 4,500 members worldwide, the Citrix Partner network is one of the largest partner communities in the industry.

Strategic partners

HP: Citrix is a member of the HP Business Partners Program and a Platinum Enterprise Management Alliance partner. HP is a Strategic Partner in the Citrix Global Alliance Partner program and a Citrix Global Systems Integrator. Citrix and HP deliver solutions that transform your user environment to provide transparent access from the broadest range of devices to your applications and information, improving IT productivity and ROI for critical business applications through a single, secure access platform.

In 2005, HP selected Citrix Password Manager as its leading Enterprise Single Sign-On offering for Identity and Access Management solutions.

IBM: IBM is a Strategic Partner in the Citrix Global Alliance Partner program and a Citrix Global Systems Integrator. Citrix Presentation Server is certified with IBM xSeries. Citrix Password Manager integrates with IBM Tivoli Identity Manager and Tivoli Access Manager to provide customers with credential and access management to support growth and change in the on-demand adaptive enterprise. The WebSphere Portlet for Citrix Presentation Server allows WebSphere customers to access Citrix published applications via the portal. Citrix and IBM Global Services deliver enterprise solutions to our mutual customers worldwide. Citrix is one of fewer than 40 Managed Alliances for IBM. Citrix is a member of IBM's Partnerworld program at the Advanced level.

Microsoft: One of Citrix's most strategic partners for many years, Microsoft is a Strategic Partner in the Citrix Global Alliance Partner program and Citrix is a Microsoft Global Gold Certified Partner. Citrix embraces Windows Servers and the .NET Framework as leading platforms for the Citrix Access Suite. Citrix Presentation Server extends Microsoft® Windows Server™ 2003 and Terminal Server, allowing Windows applications to be accessed from any device over any connection. In 2003 and again in 2005, Citrix won Microsoft's Global ISV of the Year award. The companies have in place a five-year Technology Collaboration Agreement to ensure deep, ongoing technical, marketing and executive engagement.

SAP: Citrix is an SAP Global Technology Partner and certified for SAP NetWeaver®. SAP is a Strategic Partner in the Citrix Global Alliance Partner program. As a Citrix customer, SAP provides access to more than 40 applications, including the mySAP ERP Business Suite, to over 28,900 internal users leveraging Citrix solutions. Citrix runs its global business on SAP. Today, over 40% of SAP's customer base uses Citrix solutions to increase the time-to-value of their SAP investment, while lowering the TCO of their SAP application environment.

Corporate social responsibility

Citrix's social outreach initiatives are intertwined with our belief in "information citizenship for all," where access is available across every business, educational, social and economic strata. In 2006, Citrix donated over $2 million to non profit organizations in the form of cash, products and employee time.
