

Distribution of Verigy Ltd.
Agilent Stockholder Tax Basis Information

On October 31, 2006, Agilent Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Agilent”), distributed to the holders of record of Agilent common stock that were issued and outstanding as of 5:00 p.m. Eastern time on October 16, 2006 (each, an “Agilent Stockholder”) all of the ordinary shares of Verigy Ltd., a company organized under the laws of Singapore (“Verigy”), previously held by Agilent (the “Distribution”). Each Agilent Stockholder received 0.122435 of a Verigy ordinary share for each share of Agilent common stock owned at 5:00 p.m. Eastern time on Oct. 16, 2006 (the record date for the distribution). Agilent Stockholders are receiving only whole shares of Verigy and not receiving any fractional shares in the Distribution. Each Agilent Stockholder who otherwise would have been entitled to a fractional share of Verigy will receive cash in lieu of the fractional share equal to the stockholder’s pro rata share of the total net proceeds generated by the sale of all of the fractional shares of all stockholders. The sale of the aggregated fractional interests took place shortly after the Distribution.

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, each Agilent Stockholder will be required to allocate the aggregate tax basis in his or her shares of Agilent common stock among the ordinary shares of Verigy received in the Distribution, any fractional share of Verigy for which cash is being received in lieu thereof, and the stockholder’s shares of Agilent common stock.

We advise each Agilent Stockholder to discuss the tax consequences of the Distribution, including the allocation of such stockholder’s tax basis in his or her Agilent common stock, with an independent tax advisor. Generally, an Agilent Stockholder should allocate the aggregate tax basis in his or her shares of Agilent common stock prior to the Distribution between the Agilent common stock and the Verigy ordinary shares (including any fractional shares of Verigy for which the Agilent Stockholder received cash in lieu thereof) in proportion to their respective fair market values. Fair market value generally is the price at which property would change hands between a willing buyer and a willing seller, neither being under any compulsion to buy or to sell and both having reasonable knowledge of the facts. Thus, one possible approach to determining the fair market value of the Agilent common stock and the Verigy ordinary shares is to utilize the New York Stock Exchange adjusted closing price on the date of the Distribution for Agilent common stock (which is exclusive of the value attributable to the Verigy dividend), which was $33.54 per share, and the Nasdaq Global Select market closing price on the date of the Distribution for Verigy ordinary shares which was $16.80 per share. Based on such values, 94.22% of a Agilent Stockholder’s aggregate tax basis in his or her shares of Agilent common stock prior to the Distribution should be allocated to such stockholder’s shares of Agilent common stock and 5.78% should be allocated to such stockholder’s shares of Verigy (including any fractional share of Verigy for which the Agilent Stockholder received cash in lieu thereof).

The following is an example of how the basis allocation would be so applied:

Assumptions:

Shares of Agilent common stock owned	1,000
Agilent Stockholder’s aggregate tax basis (@$15 per share) (A)	$15,000
Whole ordinary shares of Verigy received in the Distribution (1,000 shares of Agilent common stock x .122435 distribution ratio rounded down)	122
Fractional ordinary share of Verigy for which cash is paid in lieu	0.435

Tax Basis Allocation:

	# Shares Owned	Assumed Beginning Basis (A)	Closing Price (10/31/06)	FMV of Shares Owned Post- Distribution (10/31/06)	Percentage of Total FMV (10/31/06) (B)	Allocated Tax Basis = (A) x (B)
Agilent common stock	1,000	$15,000.00	$33.54 (1)	$33,540.00	94.22%	$14,133.00
Verigy ordinary shares	122	-	$16.80 (2)	$2,049.60	5.76%	$864.00
Fractional Verigy share exchanged for cash	.435	-	$16.80 (2)	$7.31	0.02%	$3.00
Totals				$35,596.91	100.0%	$15,000.00

The information in this document does not constitute tax advice. It does not purport to be complete or to describe the consequences that apply to particular categories of stockholders (e.g., it does not address stockholders who did not hold their shares of Agilent common stock continuously from 5:00 p.m. Eastern time on October 16, 2006 until the time of the Distribution, who sold ordinary shares of Verigy in the “when distributed” trading market or who acquired blocks of Agilent common stock at different times and prices). Each Agilent Stockholder is advised to consult with an independent tax advisor for questions regarding the tax consequences of the Distribution in light of the stockholder’s own tax position.
