

INSTITUTIONAL INVESTORS RECOGNIZE ENDESA CHILE'S INVESTOR RELATIONS

The team, reporting to the Administration and Finance Management, was distinguished for its transparency and agility in the provision of information to the market and its shareholders.

Endesa Chile's Investor Relations sub-management was awarded top place in the category "Investor Relations: Companies with ADRs and Large Market Capitalization" in the Top 100 of Chile's largest companies by sales, by Revista Capital and Santander Investment.

The prize-giving took place on April 19 within the framework of the "1st Major Meeting of Chilean Investors 2005". On this occasion, the company's chief executive officer, Rafael Mateo, and the chief financial officer, Alejandro Gonzalez, received the award in the presence of important representatives of the local business and financial sectors.

The election of the winner was made by a large group of institutional investors, like pension fund and mutual fund managers and stockbrokers, among other financial entities, which decided that the Endesa Chile team was the most transparent and agile in providing information to the market and to its shareholders. Endesa Chile was also mentioned as one of the companies that added most value to its shareholders and for its excellent performance in relations with the investment community.

On this occasion, the Investor Relations sub management was in competition with Banco Santander, Cencosud and Soquimich. Endesa Chile was also chosen as among the five most outstanding companies in Best Stock Market Returns, with an accumulated return of 56.47%.
