

ALFREDO MALGUZZI

Born in 1962 in Lerici (La Spezia), he is a graduate in business economics from the Università Commerciale Luigi Bocconi, Milan.

Partner at the Milan firm of Pedersoli & Associati (business and tax consultants).

A public accountant, he specializes in business and tax consulting (Italian and international) and has worked in major firms, both Italian and international, since 1985.

Formerly with the Business Management School at the Università Bocconi (administration and control area) (1990-1997), he is specialist in fiscal and business law relating to acquisitions, disinvestments and restructuring. He also writes on fiscal matters.

He is a director of Ditta Michele Ratti S.p.A. and Locman S.p.A., statutory auditor of biG S.r.l., Egidio Galbani S.p.A. and Gruppo Galbani S.p.A..

Since April 2004, he is director and member of the Internal Control Committee and Supervisory Committee of Autogrill S.p.A.