

JCDecaux has won the street furniture and self-service bicycle contract for Besançon

Paris, 2 April 2007 - JCDecaux SA (Euronext Paris: DEC), the number one outdoor advertising company in Europe and in the Asia-Pacific region and number two worldwide, has won a 15-year street furniture and self-service bicycle contract for Besançon (population: 117,691 ) following a public tender.

The contract covers 180 bus shelters, 110 MUPI® (street information displays) measuring 2m<sup>2</sup>, 53 displays of 8m<sup>2</sup> and 5 cultural information columns. The contract provides 700 advertising panels. Designs from Sir Norman Foster and JCDecaux (Rue de la Paix and Forum) have been chosen. In addition, 200 bicycles and 30 Cyclocity® stations will be installed.

Besançon has demonstrated its strong sustainable development policy with its choice of Cyclocity® and through its charter for diversity and equal opportunities that JCDecaux has signed.

Jean-Charles Decaux, Chairman of the Board of JCDecaux, said: “As the launch of Cyclocity® in Besançon, which strengthens our world N°1 position in self-service bicycles, demonstrates, this new form of individual public transport, designed and developed by JCDecaux, is generating huge interest from cities. In addition, after the recent wins in Strasbourg and Mulhouse, this contract gives us not only the opportunity to offer advertisers even more attractive and high-performance networks in the east but also consolidates our N°1 position in outdoor advertising in France.”
