Paris, December 7, 2006 – JCDecaux SA (Euronext Paris: DEC), the number one outdoor advertising company in Europe and Asia-Pacific, and the number two worldwide, announced today that MCDecaux (a joint venture between JCDecaux SA and Mitsubishi Corporation, 60% held by JCDecaux) has won four new contracts.

These 20-year contracts have been signed with the transport companies in the following cities:

- Fukuoka, Japan's 8th largest city with a population of 1.4 million
- Hiroshima, 11th largest city with a population of 1.1 million
- Niigata, 17th largest city with a population of 0.7 million
- Shizuoka, 18th largest city with a population of 0.7 million

The contracts are in addition to those previously held in:

- Yokohama (2nd largest city with a population of 3.5 million)
- Osaka (3rd largest city with a population of 2.6 million)
- Nagoya (4th largest city with a population of 2.2 million)
- Kobe (6th largest city with a population of 1,5 million)
- Okayama (19th largest city with a population of 0,6 million)

MCDecaux currently represents a potential quantity of more than 2,000 bus shelters and 4,000 advertising panels in Japan.

MCDecaux is also the largest operator of shopping centre advertising in Japan, managing advertising in more than 100 shopping centres on behalf of the 2 largest retailers, Aeon Group and Ito Yokado, through it reaching almost 50 million consumers every month.

Commenting on the contract wins, Jean-Charles Decaux, Chairman of the Executive Board of JCDecaux and Co-CEO, said: “These important contracts underline MCDecaux’s unique ability to offer advertisers and their agencies national coverage across Japan, with sites in nine of the top twenty cities on street furniture and in shopping centres. This key position is even more important as Japan is the 2nd largest advertising market in the world, worth about €39 billion every year, of which 11.5% is spent on outdoor advertising.”

Key Figures for the Group JCDecaux:

- 2005 revenues: €1,745.2M, Q3 2006 revenues: €1,382.1M
- JCDecaux is listed on the Eurolist of the Euronext Paris stock exchange, and is part of the Euronext 100 and FTSE4Good indices. JCDecaux has entered the Interbrand rankings in 23rd position, with a brand value of €1.03 billion.
