Corporate Social Responsibility:

Through the Nourishing is Also an Art program we sold $1.1 million pesos worth of crafts and products from low-end communities. Sales were given back to the communities, including earnings, to support social and alimentary development.

Thanks to the support of their members, in 2008 Sam's Club channeled $4.1 million pesos to recover 1,080 hectares of woods to support the environment. Also, in December $328,000 pesos were collected through the sale of 9,373 pictures that our members had taken with Santa. The proceeds were used to buy 49,000 toys that were later donated.

Stemming from the efforts of over 2,500 Wal-Mart de Mexico associates that volunteered to participate in the 2008 Jalisco Ball Drive Campaign; approximately $420,000 pesos were raised to distribute 69,000 balls in 152 schools in the Greater Guadalajara area, and 30 additional schools in other Jalisco municipalities. Also, the Wal-Mart Mexico Foundation gave one kilo of seeds per each 10 balls donated, thus providing the Banco Diocesano de Alimentos de Guadalajara (the Guadalajara Diocesan Food Bank) with 6.9 tons of seeds.

Repurchase of Shares:

From January 1 to December 31, 2008 we invested $2,869 million pesos, equivalent to $258 million dollars in the repurchase of 75,833,500 Company shares.
