We are pleased to provide the following update to our announcement on “Wilmar’s CSR Policies and Practices” issued on 4 July 2007.

Court Issues Judgement in Favour of Wilmar

Friends of the Earth Netherlands (“FOE”) in a report issued on 3 July 2007, alleged that Wilmar had been clearing land by the use of fire. The report further mentioned that the Indonesian authorities were suing Wilmar for intentional and systematic illegal burning of forests to clear land for plantations.

The Singkawang District Court in West Kalimantan has acquitted two officers from plantations owned or managed by Wilmar of all charges. In its written judgement, the Court found the two officers from PT Buluh Cawang Plantation and PT Wilmar Sambas Plantation not guilty of “intentional action that caused environmental pollution and/or environmental damage” and “unintentional action that caused environmental pollution and/or environmental damage”.
