C. K. COOPER & COMPANY PUBLISHES RESEARCH REPORT INITIATING COVERAGE ON PRB GAS TRANSPORTATION INC.

March 1, 2006 – Irvine, California - C. K. Cooper & Company published a 14-page research report on PRB Gas Transportation Inc. (AMEX: PRB) initiating research coverage.

Brian J. Samuels, Associate Director of Research, commented, "Over the last year, PRB has assembled a strong portfolio of gathering and transportation assets affording them with not only security in their areas of operation, but more importantly, a perfect point of entry into the E&P sector. Given our long-term belief in strong natural gas prices and the investor community's thirst for natural gas focused companies, PRB has been under the radar in its first year of operations. We believe that 2006 will provide the necessary catalyst that PRB needs to attract investor attention, resulting in increased shareholder value."

PRB Gas Transportation Inc. closed Wednesday at $5.69 per share.
