LOS ANGELES, CA – Pop rock music sensations, the Jonas Brothers, today announced the dates and cities for "The Burning Up Tour." Taking their music and touring to the next level for their ever-growing fan base, the Jonas Brothers promise to bring their most exciting production yet to the stage this summer. "The Burning Up Tour" kicks off in Toronto at the Molson Amphitheatre on July 4 and will see the band once again performing across America, headlining amphitheatres for the very first time. "We've had an awesome time touring and having an opportunity to see so many of our fans," said the Jonas Brothers. "Every time we play, we learn so much and grow both as artists and a band. We really can't wait to get back on the road this summer." The Burning Up Tour is produced by Live Nation.

Jonas Brothers also announced today the launch of their official fan club – Team Jonas. Fans that join the club at www.jonasbrothersfanclub.com will be eligible for exclusive benefits including early access to "The Burning Up Tour" concert tickets.
