LIVE NATION ANNOUNCES SUMMER CONCERT SLATE:
COMPANY TO STAGE NEARLY 7,500 SUMMER CONCERTS IN 30-PLUS COUNTRIES GLOBALLY WITH THE GREATEST ARTISTS IN THE WORLD

LOS ANGELES, CA April 24, 2008 Live Nation, the world's largest live music company, announced today a preliminary slate of summer tours and performances by some of the world's greatest artists.

"This summer we are staging concerts in more than 30 countries around the world," said Michael Rapino, President and Chief Executive Officer of Live Nation. "We expect a very strong season as our global platform will be fully utilized by an anticipated 7,500 shows during our busiest season. That means that from May 1st until the end of September we will produce an average of nearly 50 shows per day - that's one every half hour, 24 hours a day - a volume which illustrates the unparalleled capacity of our global promotion and marketing infrastructure. By the end of the summer, we currently anticipate that we will have sold more than 27 million concert tickets worldwide."

In the United States and Canada, Live Nation is currently scheduled to produce the following tours:

311

Allman Brothers Band
Brad Paisley with Jewel, Chuck Wicks and Julianne Hough

"I've never seen a more exciting group of superstar artists playing our amphitheaters over a single summer," said Jason Garner, Chief Executive Officer of North American Music at Live Nation. "There is something out there for every music fan who wants to see live music under the stars in our amphitheaters."

In addition to a stellar tour lineup, Live Nation North America is producing 3 multi-day festivals this summer:

Bamboozle (Snoop Dogg, Panic at the Disco, Jimmy Eat World, Coheed and Cambria) — East Rutherford, NJ

Pemberton Festival (Coldplay, Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers, Nine Inch Nails, JAY-Z, The Tragically Hip) — Pemberton, BC

Sasquatch Festival (REM, The Cure, The Flaming Lips) — George, WA

The North American summer tour lineup comes on the heels of some hugely successful first and second quarter Live Nation tours of North America by Jonas Brothers, who recently finished up a 39-date Winter/Spring tour, Van Halen, who are in the midst of a 36-date 2008 run, and Mary J. Blige and JAY-Z's "Heart of the City" trek, which is currently enjoying a 28-date, largely sold-out North American run.

Live Nation International has an equally star-studded lineup this summer, hosting concerts in more than 30 countries outside of North America. These include:

Avril Lavigne

Bon Jovi

Boyzone

Bruce Springsteen

Celine Dion

Def Leppard
