S&P Raises Safilo SpA To 'BB-'; Outlook Stable; Off Watch Pos
2006-04-18 10:44 (New York)

PARIS (Standard & Poor's) April 18, 2006--Standard & Poor's Ratings Services said today that it raised its long-term corporate credit rating on Italy-based eyewear manufacturer Safilo SpA to 'BB-' from 'B'.

At the same time, Standard & Poor's raised its senior secured bank loan ratings on the group to 'BB-' from 'B'. The recovery rating on the group's senior secured facilities was raised to '2' from '3'. A recovery rating of '2' reflects our expectation of substantial (80%-100%) recovery of principal for senior lenders in the case of a payment default.

Standard & Poor's also removed all its ratings on the group from CreditWatch, where they had been placed with positive implications on Nov. 18, 2005. The outlook is stable.

"The upgrade and CreditWatch removal reflect Safilo's much enhanced financial profile following a EUR295 capital increase, as well as expectations that the loss of the Polo Ralph Lauren license will be compensated by robust organic growth," said Standard & Poor's credit analyst Nicolas Baudouin.

Standard & Poor's expects Safilo to restore and maintain adequate financial measures, notably adjusted FFO to net debt of about 20%.

"There is currently little possibility of an upgrade because of the threat of license nonrenewal and limited future free cash flow generation," said Mr. Baudouin.

Despite the very sharp decrease in interest payments, free cash flow will be constrained by an increase in both working capital and capital expenditures. Furthermore, any problems with renewing the Dior and Gucci licenses in 2008 would clearly put pressure on the ratings.
