

SOURCEFIRE, INC.

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. Purpose

The Audit Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Sourcefire, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), is appointed by the Board for the purpose of overseeing (a) the integrity of the Company’s financial statements and disclosures, (b) the Company’s compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, (c) the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm’s qualifications and independence, and (d) the performance of the Company’s internal audit function and independent registered public accounting firm. In so doing, the Committee shall endeavor to maintain free and open communication between the Company’s Directors, independent registered public accounting firm and financial management. The Committee may undertake those specific duties and responsibilities listed below and such other duties as the Board shall from time to time prescribe. All powers of the Committee are subject to the restrictions designated in the Company’s bylaws and by applicable law.

II. Committee Membership

The members of the Committee (the “Members” or, individually, each a “Member”) shall be appointed by the Board, based on the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee, at the annual meeting of the Board and shall serve until their respective successors are duly appointed and qualified. The Committee shall consist of at least three (3) Members, each of which shall be a member of the Board. Members may be removed at any time by vote of the Board.

The following membership requirements shall also apply:

(i) each Member must be an Independent Director (as defined in Marketplace Rule 5605(a)(2) of the Nasdaq Stock Market (“NASDAQ”));

(ii) each Member must meet the criteria for independence set forth in Rule 10A-3(b)(1) promulgated under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”), subject to the exemptions provided in Rule 10A-3(c) under the Act;

(iii) each Member must not have participated in the preparation of the financial statements of the Company or any current subsidiary of the Company at any time during the past three (3) years;

(iv) each Member must be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including the Company’s balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement; and

(v) at least one (1) Member must have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or other comparable experience or background which results in such Member’s financial sophistication, including being or having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities, such that such Member qualifies as an “audit committee financial expert,” as such term is defined in the rules and regulations promulgated by the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and as determined by the Board.

Notwithstanding subparagraph (i) above, one (1) Director who: (a) is not an Independent Director (as defined in NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 5605(a)(2)); (b) meets the criteria set forth in Section 10A(m)(3) under the Act and the rules promulgated thereunder; and (c) is not a current officer or employee of the Company or Family Member (as defined in NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 5605(a)(2)) of such an officer or employee, may be appointed to the Committee if the Board, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that membership on the Committee by the individual is required by the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, and the Board discloses, in the Company’s next annual proxy statement subsequent to such determination, the nature of the relationship and the reasons for that determination. A Member appointed under the exception set forth in the preceding sentence must not serve longer than two (2) years and must not serve as chairperson of the Committee.

If a current Member of the Committee ceases to be independent under the requirements of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) above for reasons outside the Member’s reasonable control, the affected Member may remain on the Committee until the earlier of the Company’s next annual stockholders meeting or one year from the occurrence of the event that caused the failure to comply with those requirements; provided, however, that when relying on the exception set forth in this sentence the Committee shall cause the Company to provide notice to NASDAQ immediately upon learning of the event or circumstance that caused the non-compliance. Further, if the Committee fails to comply with the requirements set forth in this “Committee Membership” section of the Charter due to one vacancy on the Committee, and the cure period set forth in the preceding sentence is not otherwise being relied upon for another Member, the Company will have until the earlier of its next annual stockholders meeting or one year from the occurrence of the event that caused the failure to comply with the requirements to rectify such non-compliance; provided, however, that if the next annual stockholders meeting occurs no later than 180 days following the event that caused the vacancy, the Company will instead have 180 days from such event to regain compliance. When relying on the exception set forth in the preceding sentence, the Committee shall cause the Company to provide notice to NASDAQ immediately upon learning of the event or circumstance that caused the non-compliance.

III. Structure and Meetings

The Committee shall conduct its business and meetings in accordance with this Charter, the Company’s bylaws and any direction set forth by the Board. The chairperson of the Committee shall be designated by the Board or, in the absence of such a designation, by a majority of the full Committee.

The Committee shall meet at least four (4) times a year at a time and place determined by the Committee chairperson, with further meetings to occur when deemed necessary or desirable by the Committee or its chairperson. Members may participate in a meeting of the Committee by means of conference call or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and such participation shall constitute presence in person at such meeting. The Committee may establish its own schedule, provided that it shall provide such schedule to the Board in advance. The chairperson of the Committee or a majority of the Members may call special meetings of the Committee upon notice as is required for special meetings of the Board in accordance with the Company's bylaws. A majority of the Members, but not less than two (2) Members, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Unless the Committee by resolution determines otherwise, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Committee may be taken without a meeting if all Members consent thereto in writing and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Committee.

The chairperson shall preside at each meeting of the Committee and, in consultation with the other Members, shall set the frequency and length of each meeting and the agenda of items to be addressed at each meeting. In the absence of the chairperson at any meeting of the Committee, the Members present at such meeting shall designate a chairperson pro tem to serve in that capacity for the purposes of such meeting (not to include any adjournment thereof) by majority vote. The chairperson (other than a chairperson pro tem) shall ensure that the agenda for each meeting is distributed to each Member in advance of the applicable meeting. The Committee shall maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be maintained with the books and records of the Company.

The Committee may meet with any person or entity in executive session as desired by the Committee. The Committee shall meet with the Company's independent registered public accounting firms, at such times as the Committee deems appropriate, to review the independent registered public accounting firm's examination and management report.

IV. Committee Duties & Responsibilities

In fulfilling its purposes as stated in this Charter, the Committee shall undertake the specific duties and responsibilities listed below and such other duties and responsibilities as the Board shall from time to time prescribe, and shall have all powers necessary and proper to fulfill all such duties and responsibilities. Subject to applicable Board and stockholder approvals, the Committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

Financial Statements & Disclosure Matters

5. Review major issues regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentations, including any significant changes in the Company's selection or application of accounting principles, and major issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and any special audit steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies;
6. Review and discuss with management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm the Company's internal controls over financial reporting and the independent registered public accounting firm's attestation of the report prior to filing the annual report on Form 10-K;
7. Review all certifications required to be made by the Company's principal executive officer and principal financial officer in connection with the Company's periodic reports under the Act or pursuant to Sections 302 and 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act ("Sarbanes-Oxley");
8. Discuss policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management, and discuss the Company's major financial risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures;
9. Review with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, management and internal auditors any information regarding "second" opinions sought by management from any other registered accounting firm with respect to the accounting treatment of a particular event or transaction;
10. Review and discuss with management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives, as well as off-balance sheet arrangements and aggregate contractual obligations, on the Company's financial statements;
11. Review and discuss reports from the Company's independent registered public accounting firm regarding: (a) all critical accounting policies and practices to be used by the Company; (b) all alternative treatments of financial information within GAAP that have been discussed with management, including ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments and the treatment preferred by the independent registered public accounting firm; and (c) other material written communications between the independent registered public accounting firm and management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences;
12. Review and discuss with management the Company's audited financial statements and review with management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm the Company's financial statements (including disclosures made under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations") prior to the filing with the SEC of any report containing such financial statements;

13. Review the Company's earnings press releases (including type and presentation of information, paying particular attention to any use of "pro forma," or "adjusted" non-GAAP, information), as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and ratings agencies;
14. If deemed appropriate, recommend to the Board that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its annual report on Form 10-K for the last fiscal year;
15. Prepare and approve the report required by the rules of the SEC to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement in accordance with the applicable requirements of Item 7(d) of Schedule 14A and Item 407(d)(3)(i) of Regulation S-K;
16. Meet separately, periodically, with management, with the Company's internal auditors (or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function) and with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm;

Matters Regarding Oversight of the Company's Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

17. Be directly responsible, in its capacity as a committee of the Board, for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of any independent registered public accounting firm engaged (including resolution of disagreements between management and such firm regarding financial reporting) for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company; provided also that each such registered public accounting firm shall report directly to the Committee;
18. Obtain and review a report from the Company's independent registered public accounting firm at least annually regarding (a) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by an inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities within the preceding five years respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and (b) any steps taken to deal with such issues;
19. Receive and review a formal written statement and letter from the Company's independent registered public accounting firm delineating all relationships between the independent registered public accounting firm and the Company, consistent with the applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (the "PCAOB");
20. Actively engage in a dialogue with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm with respect to any disclosed relationship or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the independent registered public accounting firm;
21. Take, or recommend that the Board take, appropriate action to oversee and ensure the independence of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm;
22. Establish clear policies regarding the hiring of employees and former employees of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm;

23. Establish policies and procedures for review and pre-approval by the Committee of all audit services and permissible non-audit services (including the fees and terms thereof) to be performed by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, with exceptions provided for de minimis amounts under certain circumstances as permitted by law; provided, however, that: (a) the Committee may delegate to one (1) or more Members the authority to grant such pre-approvals if the pre-approval decisions of any such delegate Member(s) are presented to the Committee at its next-scheduled meeting; and (b) all approvals of non-audit services to be performed by the independent registered public accounting firm must be disclosed in the Company's applicable periodic reports;
24. Ensure that the Company's independent registered public accounting firm is registered as a public accounting firm with the PCAOB, as provided for in Section 102 of Sarbanes-Oxley.
25. Discuss with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as may be modified or supplemented, relating to the conduct of the audit;
26. Review with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm any audit problems or difficulties and management's response, including any restrictions on the scope of such firm's activities or access to requested information, any significant disagreements with management, any accounting adjustments that were noted or proposed by such firm but were "passed" (as immaterial or otherwise), any "management" or "internal control" letter issued, or proposed to be issued, by the firm to the Company, and a discussion of the responsibilities, budget and staffing of the Company's internal audit function;
27. Review and evaluate the qualifications, performance and independence of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and its lead partner, and present the Committee's conclusions to the Board;
28. Oversee the rotation of the lead (or coordinating) audit partner of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm having primary responsibility for the audit and the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit at least every five (5) fiscal years;

Matters Regarding Oversight of the Company's Internal Audit Function

29. Review the Company's annual audited financial statements with management, including any major issues regarding accounting and auditing principles and practices, and review management's evaluation of the adequacy and effectiveness of internal controls that could significantly affect the Company's financial statements, as well as the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures and management's reports thereon;
30. Review major changes to the Company's auditing and accounting principles and practices as suggested by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, internal auditors or management;

31. Review the staffing and the qualifications of the Company's internal audit function;
32. Review the significant reports to management prepared by the Company's internal audit function and management's responses;

Matters Regarding Oversight of Compliance Responsibilities

33. Advise the Board with respect to the Company's policies and procedures regarding compliance with applicable laws and regulations (including Sarbanes-Oxley, the Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder, and the rules of NASDAQ and the SEC), and with the Company's code of business conduct and ethics;
34. Obtain reports from the Company's management, internal audit function and independent registered public accounting firm that the Company's subsidiaries and foreign affiliated entities are in compliance with applicable legal requirements, including the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act;
35. Establish procedures for: (a) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters; and (b) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters;
36. Review all related party transactions for potential conflict of interest situations on an ongoing basis and approve all such transactions (if such transactions are not approved by another independent body of the Board);
37. Review and address any concerns regarding potentially illegal actions raised by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm or the internal audit function pursuant to Section 10A(b) of the Act; and cause the Company to inform the SEC of any report issued by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm to the Board regarding such conduct pursuant to Rule 10A-1 under the Act;
38. Obtain from the Company's independent registered public accounting firm assurance that such firm has complied with Section 10A of the Act;

Additional Duties & Responsibilities

39. Review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually;
40. Conduct an annual self-evaluation of the Committee and report to the Board on the results of the evaluation;
41. Review with the Company's outside counsel and internal legal counsel any legal matters that may have a material impact on the financial statements, the Company's compliance policies and any material reports or inquiries received from regulators or governmental agencies;
42. Provide oversight and review of the Company's asset management policies, including an annual review of the Company's investment policies and performance for cash and short-term investments;

43. Review with management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's internal control over financial reporting;
44. Review the Company's risk management framework, policies and programs; and
45. Perform such other functions and have such other powers consistent with this Charter, the Company's bylaws and governing law as the Committee or the Board may deem appropriate.

Although the Committee has the responsibilities, duties and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements are complete, accurate and in accordance with GAAP. Rather, those duties are the responsibility of management and the independent registered public accounting firm.

Nothing contained in this Charter is intended to alter or impair the operation of the "business judgment rule" as interpreted by the courts under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. Further, nothing contained in this Charter is intended to alter or impair the right of the Members to rely, in discharging their duties and responsibilities, on the records of the Company and on other information presented to the Committee, Board or Company by its officers or employees or by outside experts and advisers such as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

V. Reporting

The chairperson of the Committee (or other Member designated by the chairperson or the Committee in the chairperson's absence) shall regularly report to the full Board on its proceedings and any actions that the Committee takes, and shall make recommendations as appropriate.

VI. Authority and Resources

The Committee shall have the authority, without approval of the Board or management, to engage and compensate such independent legal, accounting or other advisers as it determines necessary or desirable to carry out its duties and, if necessary, to institute special investigations. The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company, or the Company's outside counsel or independent registered public accounting firm, to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee. Further, the Committee may request any such officer, employee, outside counsel or independent registered public accounting firm to provide any pertinent information to the Committee or to any other person or entity designated by the Committee. The Company shall provide the Committee with appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee in its capacity as a committee of the Board, for the payments of: (a) compensation to any registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company; (b) compensation to any independent advisers retained by the Committee in carrying out its duties; and (c) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. The Company's Secretary shall provide the Committee such staff support as it may require. The Committee may, to the extent permitted under applicable law, the rules of NASDAQ and the SEC, and the Company's bylaws, form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate.
