Rezidor opens the Radisson Le Dokhan's Hotel, Paris Trocadéro

The Rezidor Hotel Group has added a new and beautiful boutique hotel in Paris to its growing portfolio: The Radisson Le Dokhan's Hotel, Paris Trocadéro has recently joined the company. Located in a former private residence in the prestigious 16th arrondissement within walking distance of the Arc de Triomphe, the Tour Eiffel and the Palais des Congrès, the hotel harks back to the elegant days of the 18th century.

From its well-preserved Haussmann façade to the neo-classical furnishings and Paris' first champagne bar, the Radisson Le Dokhan's Hotel is a delight for the senses. The 41 rooms and 4 suites have been styled under the careful eyes of French designer Frédéric Méchiche. Warm tones, silky fabrics and modern amenities such as free high speed internet access create a romantic, ultra-luxurious look and feel. Each suite shows an individual design – the 4 exclusive, private paradises are named "Kleber", "Bagatelle", "Eiffel" and "Ming". All guests benefit from a 24-hours-room service offering cold and hot dishes; beverages and snacks are also available at the cosy bar which is a preferred place for a cup of tea at the fire place, after a day of sightseeing and before or after a dinner, concert or musical in the heart of Paris.

The hotel's lounge areas are a true pleasure as well where original artworks grace the walls. And no guest should miss the unique elevator which has been created out of a vintage Louis Vuitton wardrobe trunk.

Rezidor first arrived in Paris in 1997 with a hotel at Charles De Gaulle Airport. Today, the group's portfolio in France features 24 properties with almost 4,400 rooms in operation and under development – out of which 1,600 rooms in Paris alone: A chic resort at Disneyland, 2 hotels serving Charles De Gaulle Airport, and 6 hotels downtown Paris including a brand new property in La Défense are adding new sparkles to the glittering Parisian scenery.
