Orbitz Worldwide Expands Hotel Supplier Relations Team

Appointments of more than 20 Hotel Market Managers and Senior Staff in EMEA, Asia Pacific; New Office in Singapore

Chicago, IL, November 9, 2007 – Orbitz Worldwide (NYSE: OWW), a leading global online travel company, today announced the appointments of more than 20 EMEA and Asia Pacific-based market managers and senior staff supporting the company’s hotel supplier relations team.

“Orbitz Worldwide is focused on continued growth through increased hotel bookings, especially in Europe and Asia Pacific,” said Peggy Bianco, vice president, global hotel supplier relations, Orbitz Worldwide. “The addition of experienced staff to our supplier relations team is an important step in building out improved inventory and long term partnerships in these markets.”

Reporting into Peggy Bianco, vice president of global hotel supplier relations for Orbitz Worldwide, includes the following global team:

- Garry Wilson, regional director, sourcing EMEA (London)
- Andrew Cox, regional director, sourcing Asia (Singapore)
- Melanie Ryan, sr. director, global strategic accounts, (Chicago)
- Jeff Eckerling, sr. director, global hotel strategy, (Chicago)

“In addition to these senior appointments, we’re pleased to further demonstrate our commitment to growth in Asia Pacific and EMEA through the opening our newest office in Singapore and adding regional leadership and staff to our Singapore, London, Sydney and Paris-based operations,” added Bianco.
