ANZ appoints Managing Director Institutional Banking

ANZ today announced the appointment of Mr Joseph Healy as Managing Director Institutional Banking, reporting to Mr Steve Targett, Group Managing Director Institutional.

Mr Healy was previously the Head of Regional Investment Banking and Private Equity at ANZ. He was responsible for developing the bank's private equity and development capital business and its 'Wall Street to Main Street' strategy bringing investment banking solutions to mid-sized businesses. Mr Healy joined ANZ in 1998 as the Head of Corporate Finance in New Zealand.

He previously worked for CIBC Wood Gundy as Executive Director Corporate and Structured Finance and before that held a number of senior roles at Citibank in the United Kingdom, Europe and New Zealand. He holds a Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of London, an MBA from Henley Management College in the United Kingdom and a Masters in Finance from the London Business School.

Commenting on the appointment Mr Targett said: "Joseph has a strong background with over 23 years of experience in relationship management, lending, debt and equity capital markets, structured finance and corporate finance. He is well suited to lead the Institutional Banking team in focusing on growth, further developing our customer proposition and retaining our market leadership over the long term."

Mr Healy has been acting in the role since December 2004, following Dr Murray Horn's decision to take a two-year career break. Mr Healy will be based in Sydney.
