Dear E*TRADE Australia shareholder,

I am pleased to present you with this Offer to acquire all your shares in E*TRADE Australia for $4.05 per share.

The independent directors of E*TRADE Australia (Kerry Roxburgh, Brett Spork, Jim Dominguez and Ian Hunter) have said they will unanimously recommend that E*TRADE Australia shareholders accept the Offer, and that they intend to accept this Offer for their own holdings of E*TRADE Australia, in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that the Offer is fair and reasonable.¹

Benefits of the Offer

ANZ's Offer provides very attractive value for your investment in E*TRADE Australia. The Offer represents:

- a 25.5% premium to the three month volume weighted average price of E*TRADE Australia shares prior to the announcement of the Offer on 19 February 2007; and
- a 39.4% premium to the three month volume weighted average price of E*TRADE Australia shares before recent press speculation of a possible takeover.²

ANZ is E*TRADE Australia's largest shareholder with a 34.2% shareholding accumulated as part of a strategic alliance formed between ANZ and E*TRADE Australia in 1999.

ANZ believes that E*TRADE Australia's business would benefit from additional management and operational expertise and support to consolidate and build on its recent growth. ANZ can provide this.

How to accept the Offer

The Offer is scheduled to close at 7:00pm (Melbourne time) on 18 April 2007.

To accept this Offer please follow the instructions on the enclosed Transfer and Acceptance Form. 1. UNANIMOUS RECOMMENDATION BY E*TRADE INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

A committee of independent directors of E*TRADE Australia⁵ unanimously recommend that you accept the Offer in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that the Offer is fair and reasonable.

Each of these independent directors has said that he intends to accept this Offer for his own holdings of E*TRADE Shares on that basis.⁶

On 19 February 2007, E*TRADE Australia's Chairman, Mr Kerry Roxburgh said:

*“Given the offer’s premium to E*TRADE’s share price and particularly relative to historic share prices, it is a compelling offer. The committee of independent directors have concluded it is in the best interests of all shareholders and are pleased for shareholders to consider it.”*

*“Based on the great success we have already realised from our alliance, the integration of E*TRADE Australia and ANZ is a logical next step.”⁷*

⁵ The committee of independent directors of E*TRADE Australia comprises Kerry Roxburgh, Jim Dominguez, Ian Hunter and Brett Spork. The committee excludes John Harries and Geoff Cohen who were nominated to the E*TRADE Australia board by ANZ and are executives of ANZ, and Jarrett Lilien who was nominated by E*TRADE Financial Corporation.

Part 2. Why You Should Accept The Offer

2. YOU WILL RECEIVE A SIGNIFICANT PREMIUM FOR YOUR E*TRADE SHARES OVER THE PRE-ANNOUNCEMENT SHARE PRICE

The $4.05 Offer price is well above where E*TRADE Shares have traded over the three years prior to the announcement of ANZ's Offer.⁸

⁸ The Offer was announced on 19 February 2007.

⁹ Street Talk, Australian Financial Review, 2 November 2006, page 28.

¹⁰ "E*TRADE boss's unexpected exit fuels takeover talk", Australian Financial Review, 16 January 2007, page 14.

The $4.05 Offer price also represents a significant premium to the prices at which E*TRADE Shares have traded over the six months prior to the Offer announcement, notwithstanding that E*TRADE Shares have appreciated 63.0% during this time:

- 43.2% premium to the six month VWAP prior to announcement¹¹ (54.6% premium to the six month VWAP prior to speculation¹²);
- 25.5% premium to the three month VWAP prior to announcement (39.4% premium to the three month VWAP prior to speculation); and
- 17.0% premium to the one month VWAP prior to announcement (30.2% premium to the one month VWAP prior to speculation).

¹¹ Pre announcement VWAP calculated up until 16 February 2007, the last trading day prior to announcement on 19 February 2007.

¹² Pre speculation VWAP calculated up until 15 January 2007, the last trading day prior to press takeover speculation as reported in "E*TRADE boss's unexpected exit fuels takeover talk", Australian Financial Review, 16 January 2007, page 14.

Part 2. Why You Should Accept The Offer

3. YOU WILL RECEIVE SUBSTANTIAL VALUE FOR YOUR E*TRADE SHARES

The $4.05 Offer represents a significant Price/Earnings (P/E) multiple of E*TRADE Australia's earnings:

- 17.0x E*TRADE Australia's Basic Earnings Per Share (EPS) for the 12 months ended 31 December 2006, excluding non-recurring items;¹³ and
- 24.5x E*TRADE Australia's EPS for the 12 months ended 31 December 2006, excluding non-recurring items and normalised to allow for the corporate tax rate.¹⁴

The relative P/E multiples implied by ANZ's Offer of $4.05 per share illustrate that shareholders will receive full value for their investment in E*TRADE Australia.¹⁵ This is further emphasised when an adjustment is made to take account of the full corporate tax rate to which E*TRADE Australia is likely to be subject once tax losses have been fully utilised.

¹⁴ E*TRADE Australia did not record any income tax expense for the year ended June 2006 due to accumulated tax losses. At 31 December 2006, E*TRADE Australia held a recognised deferred tax asset (DTA) of $3.8 million in respect of carry forward tax losses and net temporary differences. To the extent DTA on tax losses are utilised in the second half of financial year 2007, that amount will be reduced in the full year ending 30 June 2007. The tax normalised 2006 P/E multiple is based on E*TRADE Australia's net profit before tax (pre associates, amortisation and non-recurring items) for the 12 months ended 31 December 2006 of $24.2 million, taxed at 30%, plus associates (post tax) of $1.0 million, resulting in a tax normalised EPS of $0.17.

¹⁵ P/E multiples based on share prices as at 16 February 2007. E*TRADE Financial Corporation EPS from 2006 annual report. S&P/ASX 300 Index P/E multiple is based on the average of broker analyst aggregate index company earnings estimates that could be identified around the time of the announcement, and have been calendarised to 31 December 2006 year end. Two broker analyst estimates have been used in the sample (dated 16 February 2007 and 19 February 2007 respectively), both of which infer P/E multiples of 16.0x.

4. E*TRADE AUSTRALIA WOULD BENEFIT FROM ADDITIONAL MANAGEMENT AND OPERATIONAL SUPPORT FOR FUTURE GROWTH

ANZ believes E*TRADE Australia's business would benefit from additional management and operational expertise and support to consolidate and build on its recent growth. ANZ can provide this, particularly given its transaction processing expertise.

5. IN THE ABSENCE OF ANZ'S OFFER, THE E*TRADE SHARE PRICE IS LIKELY TO FALL

E*TRADE Australia's share price has increased materially in the period immediately prior to the announcement of ANZ's Offer:

- More than 60% in the preceding six months; and
- 10.8% from the date prior to speculation about a possible takeover of E*TRADE Australia reported in the press on 16 January 2007.¹⁶

Following the announcement of ANZ's Offer, E*TRADE Shares have traded above the $4.05 Offer price.

¹⁷ Street Talk, Australian Financial Review, 2 November 2006, page 28.

Part 2. Why You Should Accept The Offer

If ANZ's Offer does not proceed, and no other offers are made for E*TRADE Shares, you will continue to own your E*TRADE Shares and, in ANZ's view, it is likely that the trading price of E*TRADE Shares will fall.

ANZ currently holds a 34.2% shareholding in E*TRADE Australia and has strong links with E*TRADE Australia through customer relationships and its existing support for E*TRADE Australia's margin lending and cash management operations. No other party can acquire 100% of E*TRADE Australia without ANZ's support.

6. YOU WILL NOT INCUR ANY BROKERAGE BY ACCEPTING THE OFFER

E*TRADE Shareholders will not pay any brokerage charges (or GST on such brokerage charges) on accepting the Offer.

- (h) you agree to indemnify ANZ Online (and each of its directors, officers and agents) in respect of any claim or action against it or any loss, damage or liability whatsoever incurred by it as a result of you not producing your Holder Identification Number (or HIN) or Securityholder Reference Number (or SRN) or in consequence of the transfer of your E*TRADE Shares being registered by ANZ Online without production of your Holder Identification Number or Securityholder Reference Number.

Part 4. The Offer Terms

4.3 Powers of attorney

4.4 Validation of otherwise ineffective acceptances

Except for E*TRADE Shares in a CHESS Holding, ANZ Online may treat the receipt by it of a signed Transfer and Acceptance Form as a valid acceptance of this Offer even though it does not receive the other documents required by the instructions on the Transfer and Acceptance Form or there is not compliance with any one or more of the other requirements for acceptance. If ANZ Online does treat such a Transfer and Acceptance Form as valid, subject to clause 6, ANZ Online will not be obliged to give the consideration to you until ANZ Online receives all those documents and all of the requirements for acceptance referred to in clause 3.3 and in the Transfer and Acceptance Form have been met.

5. DEFEATING CONDITIONS

5.1 Defeating Conditions of this Offer

This Offer and the contract resulting from acceptance of this Offer are subject to the fulfilment of the following Defeating Conditions:

(a) Minimum acceptance condition

During, or at the end of, the Offer Period, the number of E*TRADE Shares in which ANZ Online and its associates together have relevant interests (disregarding any relevant interest that ANZ Online has merely because of the operation of section 608(3) of the Corporations Act) is at least 90% of all the E*TRADE Shares (even if that number later becomes less than 90% of all the E*TRADE Shares as a result of the issue of further E*TRADE Shares).

(b) No action by Public Authority adversely affecting ANZ's Offer

During the period from and including the Announcement Date to the end of the Offer Period:

- (i) there is not in effect any preliminary or final decision, order or decree issued by a Public Authority;
- (ii) no action or investigation is instituted, or threatened by any Public Authority; and
- (iii) no application is made to any Public Authority (other than an application by ANZ Online or any company within the ANZ Group), in consequence of, or in connection with, the Offer, which restrains, prohibits or impedes, or threatens to restrain, prohibit or impede, or may otherwise materially adversely impact upon, the making of the Offer, the acquisition of E*TRADE Shares under the Offer or the rights of ANZ Online in respect of E*TRADE Australia and the E*TRADE Shares to be acquired under the Offer or otherwise, or seeks to require the divestiture by ANZ Online (or ANZ) of any E*TRADE Shares, or the divestiture of any assets by a member of the E*TRADE Australia Group or the ANZ Group.

(c) E*TRADE Licence

Before the end of the Offer Period, E*TRADE Financial Corporation (formerly, E*TRADE Group Inc.):

- (i) does not exercise or give notice that it intends to exercise its right to terminate the E*TRADE Licence without cause; and

 - (A) each of ETRADE Australia Securities Limited and E*TRADE Australia providing a reciprocal waiver of their right to terminate the E*TRADE Licence without cause (including subject to the condition referred to in sub-subparagraph (B) below); and
 - (B) the Offer becoming unconditional.

(d) No material adverse change

- (ii) no occurrence or matter of the type referred to in clause 5.1(d)(i), which occurred before the Announcement Date but was not apparent from publicly available information before then, becomes public.

- (a) is and must be construed as a separate Defeating Condition; and

5.3 Nature of Defeating Conditions

None of the Defeating Conditions prevents a contract to sell your E*TRADE Shares resulting from your acceptance of this Offer but:

- (a) breach of any of the Defeating Conditions entitles ANZ Online to rescind that contract by notice to you; and

5.6 Contract void if Defeating Conditions not fulfilled

Your acceptance or the contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer is void if:

- (a) at the end of the Offer Period any of the Defeating Conditions in clause 5.1 is not fulfilled; and
- (b) ANZ Online has not declared this Offer and any contract resulting from the acceptance of it free of that Defeating Condition in accordance with clause 5.4.

6.2 Transfer and Acceptance Form requires additional documents

Where documents are required to be given to ANZ Online with your acceptance to enable ANZ Online to become the holder of your E*TRADE Shares (such as a power of attorney):

However, if at the time ANZ Online is given the documents the contract resulting from acceptance of the Offer is still subject to a Defeating Condition in clause 5.1(f)(i), ANZ Online will pay you the consideration within 21 days after the contract becomes unconditional.

Part 4. The Offer Terms

6.3 ANZ Online may set off share scheme debts

If you owe a debt to E*TRADE Australia, or any other person, under the terms of an employee or director incentive scheme, ANZ Online may satisfy its obligations under this Offer by paying as much of the consideration as is required to discharge that debt to E*TRADE Australia (or the other person to whom it is owed) and paying you any remaining consideration.

If you do not give those documents to ANZ Online, or if you have received or are entitled to receive (or any previous holder of your E*TRADE Shares has received or is entitled to receive) the benefit of those Rights, ANZ Online may deduct the amount (or value as reasonably assessed by ANZ Online) of such Rights from any consideration otherwise payable to you. If ANZ Online does not, or cannot, make such a deduction, you must pay that amount to ANZ Online.

6.7 Clearances for offshore residents and others

- (a) If at the time you accept the Offer or any consideration would otherwise become payable to you as a result of your acceptance of this Offer:
- (i) any authority or clearance of the Reserve Bank of Australia or the Australian Tax Office is required for you to receive any consideration under this Offer; or
 - (ii) you are resident of a place to which, or you are a person to whom, any other law of Australia or elsewhere would make it unlawful for ANZ Online to provide consideration for your E*TRADE Shares,
- then your acceptance of this Offer does not create or transfer to you any right to receive the consideration specified in this Offer unless and until you obtain all requisite authorities or clearances and your E*TRADE Shares are free from Encumbrances. (See clause 16.8 of this Bidder's Statement for information as to whether this restriction applies to you.)

- (b) If at the time you accept the Offer or any consideration would otherwise become payable to you as a result of your acceptance of this Offer, your E*TRADE Shares are subject to a notice of the kind described in paragraph (b) of the definition of “Encumbrance” (defined in clause 18), then the consideration to which you would otherwise be entitled will be dealt with as required by law, and payment of it to a person (including a Government Agency) in accordance with the law shall satisfy ANZ Online’s obligations under this Offer.

If during the Offer Period and before you accept this Offer your E*TRADE Shares consist of two or more separate parcels within the meaning of section 653B of the Corporations Act (for example, because you are a trustee or nominee for several distinct beneficial owners), section 653B of the Corporations Act will apply so that:

- (a) ANZ Online is taken to have made a separate Offer to you for each separate parcel of E*TRADE Shares; and
- (b) acceptance by you of the Offer for any distinct parcel of E*TRADE Shares is ineffective unless:
 - (i) you give ANZ Online notice in accordance with clause 7.4 stating that your E*TRADE Shares consist of separate parcels; and

Part 5. Information About ANZ, Its Intentions Concerning E*TRADE Australia And Its Sources Of Cash Consideration

10.2 ANZ

ANZ is one of four major Australian-based banking groups, and is headquartered in Melbourne. As at 30 September 2006, ANZ was ranked third among Australian banking groups in terms of total assets ($336 billion), shareholders' equity ($19.9 billion) and market capitalisation ($49 billion).

ANZ conducts its operations primarily in Australia and New Zealand (approximately 94% of ANZ's total assets at 30 September 2006 were related to these operations). The remainder of ANZ's operations are conducted across the Asian and Pacific regions, and in a number of other countries including the United Kingdom and the United States. At 30 September 2006, ANZ had 1,265 branches and other points of representation worldwide and employed in excess of 32,000 people.

10.3 Where to find further information about ANZ

Further information about ANZ can be found at www.anz.com.

In addition, information on ANZ can be found on ASX's website at www.asx.com.au.

These websites do not form part of this Bidder's Statement.

11. REASONS FOR THE ACQUISITION

ANZ is E*TRADE Australia's largest shareholder with a 34.2% shareholding accumulated as part of a strategic alliance formed between ANZ and E*TRADE Australia in 1999. ANZ believes that E*TRADE Australia would benefit from additional management and operational expertise and support to consolidate and build on its recent growth. ANZ can provide this. A closer relationship through an increased shareholding in E*TRADE Australia is the logical next step. The acquisition would further ANZ's strategy to be a leader in personal financial services in Australia including accelerating growth in convenient and simple wealth management and investment services.

12. ANZ'S INTENTIONS

12.1 Overview

This clause 12 sets out ANZ's current intentions in respect of the businesses, assets and employees of E*TRADE Australia. These intentions are based on the facts and information concerning E*TRADE Australia which are known to ANZ at the date of this Bidder's Statement. ANZ's intentions may change as new information becomes available to ANZ or circumstances change.

ANZ Online's intentions are identical to the intentions of ANZ as set out in this clause.

12.2 Compulsory acquisition

If ANZ Online becomes entitled to compulsorily acquire outstanding E*TRADE Shares under Part 6A of the Corporations Act, ANZ Online presently intends to proceed with compulsory acquisition of those E*TRADE Shares. ANZ Online then intends to procure that E*TRADE Australia is removed from the official list of the ASX.

12.3 Intentions for E*TRADE Australia as a wholly-owned subsidiary

The intentions of ANZ if E*TRADE Australia becomes a wholly-owned subsidiary of ANZ are set out in this clause 12.3.

ANZ intends to grow and enhance E*TRADE Australia's business as part of ANZ's broader personal wealth management and investments strategy. Accordingly, ANZ intends to operate E*TRADE Australia as a discrete business stream within ANZ's Personal Division. ANZ intends that E*TRADE Australia will be headquartered in Sydney, at least in the medium term.

At the end of the Offer Period, ANZ will conduct a review of E*TRADE Australia's assets, operations and strategy in light of the more detailed information then available to it, and will formulate more detailed plans at this time. ANZ expects its review will focus on the risks and returns of each of E*TRADE Australia's business streams and, in particular:

- (a) opportunities to offer an expanded product range to new and existing customers of E*TRADE Australia;
- (b) opportunities to enhance customer service levels, including through improving the infrastructure underlying E*TRADE Australia's information technology platform; and
- (c) the most appropriate means of providing ANZ support for some E*TRADE Australia central functions such as human resources, finance, compliance and risk.

With the benefit of its planned internal review of E*TRADE Australia, ANZ will consider the best allocation of E*TRADE Australia and ANZ employees to continuing and new roles. Given ANZ's intention to enhance the product and service offering to E*TRADE Australia clients, ANZ expects opportunities will be presented for both E*TRADE Australia and ANZ staff.

ANZ expects that there will be few, if any, redundancies of E*TRADE Australia's staff. To the extent that redundancies occur and alternative roles cannot be found within ANZ's wider operations, ANZ intends to ensure that the affected employees will receive benefits in accordance with their contractual and other legal entitlements.

12.4 Intentions for E*TRADE Australia if it is controlled by ANZ

This clause 12.4 sets out ANZ's intentions if, following the close of ANZ's Offer, E*TRADE Australia becomes a controlled entity, but not a wholly-owned subsidiary, of ANZ. In these circumstances, ANZ presently intends to:

- (a) replace members of the board of directors of E*TRADE Australia with nominees of ANZ, so that the number of ANZ's nominees is at least proportionate to ANZ Group's holding of E*TRADE Shares;
- (b) if appropriate and consistent with the ASX listing rules, consider seeking the delisting of E*TRADE Australia from the ASX;
- (c) through its nominees on the board of directors of E*TRADE Australia, consider an appropriate dividend policy for E*TRADE Australia; and
- (d) otherwise seek to implement, to the extent possible and appropriate, the intentions described in clause 12.3 above.

Part 5. Information About ANZ, Its Intentions Concerning E*TRADE Australia And Its Sources Of Cash Consideration

The extent to which ANZ will be able to implement these intentions will be subject to:

- the law and the ASX listing rules, in particular in relation to related party transactions and conflicts of interests;
- the legal obligations of the directors of E*TRADE Australia to act for proper purposes and in the best interests of E*TRADE Australia shareholders as a whole; and
- the outcome of the strategic review referred to in clause 12.3 above.

Any transactions between members of the ANZ Group and the E*TRADE Australia Group required to effect those steps will be entered into on arm's length terms. ANZ will seek any necessary approval of other E*TRADE Australia shareholders, as required by law or the ASX listing rules, to implement these steps.

If ANZ becomes entitled at some later time to exercise general compulsory acquisition rights under the Corporations Act, it may exercise those rights.

12.5 Other intentions

Subject to the above it is the present intention of ANZ, on the basis of the facts and information concerning E*TRADE Australia which are known to it and the existing circumstances affecting the business of E*TRADE Australia, that:

- (a) the business of E*TRADE Australia will otherwise be continued in substantially the same manner as it is presently being conducted;
- (b) no other major changes will be made to the business of E*TRADE Australia and there will not be any other redeployment of the fixed assets of E*TRADE Australia; and
- (c) the present employees of E*TRADE Australia will otherwise continue to be employed by E*TRADE Australia.

13. SOURCES OF CASH CONSIDERATION

The total amount that ANZ Online would be required to pay for E*TRADE Shares if ANZ Online acquires all of the E*TRADE Shares in which it (or its associates) do not already have a relevant interest is $268 million.

ANZ Online will fund the cash consideration payable to E*TRADE Australia shareholders using cash provided to it by a member or members of the ANZ Group. ANZ has unconditionally and irrevocably agreed with ANZ Online to ensure that sufficient funds are provided to ANZ Online to enable ANZ Online to meet its payment obligations under the Offer. These funds will be sourced by ANZ from immediately available cash resources of ANZ. ANZ's immediately available cash resources are in excess of the amount required to fully fund the maximum amount of cash consideration that ANZ Online could be required to pay for E*TRADE Shares under the Offer.

Part 6. Australian Tax Considerations

14. TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS

14.1 Australian tax implications for E*TRADE Australia shareholders

The following is a general description of the Australian income and capital gains tax consequences for E*TRADE Australia shareholders (other than temporary residents) on disposing of their E*TRADE Shares, in return for cash.

It is based upon taxation law and practice in effect at the date of this Bidder's Statement. It is not intended to be an authoritative or complete analysis of the taxation laws of Australia, as they apply to the specific circumstances of any particular shareholder.

You are advised to seek independent professional advice regarding the Australian tax consequences of disposing of your E*TRADE Shares according to your own particular circumstances.

14.2 Shareholders who are Australian residents

(a) Disposal of shares held as trading stock

If you hold your E*TRADE Shares as trading stock (e.g. as a share trader), you will be required to include the value of the consideration from the disposal of your E*TRADE Shares (i.e. the cash received) in your assessable income.

(b) Disposal of shares otherwise held on revenue account

If you hold your E*TRADE Shares in the ordinary course of a business, or as part of another profit-making arrangement, such that the shares are held on revenue account but not as trading stock (e.g. banks, insurance companies and some investment companies), you will be required to treat any gain or loss arising on the disposal of your E*TRADE Shares as either assessable income or an allowable deduction.

The gain or loss will be calculated as the difference between:

- (i) the value of the consideration (the cash received); and
- (ii) the cost of acquiring your E*TRADE Shares (or other appropriate value where the shares are trading stock).

A deductible loss may be used to offset other assessable income, including net capital gains, derived in the same or subsequent years of income (subject to satisfying certain conditions) but cannot be carried back to offset assessable income, including net capital gains, derived in earlier income years.

(c) Disposal of shares held as capital investments

The disposal of E*TRADE Shares which were acquired or deemed to have been acquired on or after 20 September 1985 and which are held as capital investments, will generally have Australian capital gains tax (CGT) implications. The disposal of such E*TRADE Shares pursuant to acceptance of the Offer will constitute a CGT event for CGT purposes.

Part 6. Australian Tax Considerations

The CGT implications of a disposal of your E*TRADE Shares will depend upon a number of factors, including:

- the date your E*TRADE Shares were acquired;
- your taxpayer status; and
- the length of time you have held your E*TRADE Shares.

(i) Shares acquired before 11:45am on 21 September 1999

If your E*TRADE Shares were acquired on or after 20 September 1985 a capital gain or loss will arise depending on the difference between:

- the value of the capital proceeds (the cash received); and
- the cost base of the E*TRADE Shares (which would generally include the amount paid to acquire the shares plus any incidental costs of acquisition, e.g. brokerage fees).

If your E*TRADE Shares were acquired before 11:45am by legal time in the Australian Capital Territory (ACT time) on 21 September 1999, for the purpose of calculating a capital gain (but not a capital loss), you may choose that the cost base of those shares be indexed for inflation to the September quarter of 1999 (which would only be of any practical effect if the shares were acquired before 1 July 1999).

Alternatively, provided you have held your E*TRADE Shares for at least one year, and do not choose to apply indexation, the discount capital gain provisions may apply. This means that:

- if you are an individual, only one-half of the capital gain (without any allowance for indexation for inflation in the cost base of the shares) will be taxable;
- if you are a complying superannuation entity, only two-thirds of the capital gain (without any allowance for indexation for inflation in the cost base of the shares) will be taxable; or
- if you are the trustee of a trust, the discount capital gains provisions may also apply to a distribution of the capital gain to beneficiaries in the trust (other than beneficiaries that are companies).

Note that the discount capital gain provisions do not apply to shareholders and trust beneficiaries that are companies.

The “choice” to apply indexation rather than the discount capital gain provisions must be made by you on or before the day you lodge your income tax return for the income year in which the disposal occurs.

A capital loss may be used to offset capital gains derived in the same or subsequent years of income (subject to satisfying certain conditions) but cannot be offset against ordinary income, nor carried back to offset net capital gains arising in earlier income years.

If you choose to use the discount capital gain method, any available capital loss will be applied to reduce the realised nominal gain before discounting the resulting net amount (to the extent that it does not exceed the discount capital gain) by either one-half or one-third (as applicable) to calculate the assessable capital gain. Alternatively, if you choose the indexation option, capital losses are applied after calculating the capital gain using the indexed cost base.

(ii) Shares acquired after 11:45am on 21 September 1999

If you acquired your E*TRADE Shares after 11:45 am (ACT time) on 21 September 1999 you will not be entitled to choose indexation of the cost base when calculating any capital gain on disposal.

If you are an individual, trust or complying superannuation entity that has held your E*TRADE Shares for 12 months or longer at the time the Offer is accepted, the discount capital gain provisions described above will automatically apply in calculating any capital gain on disposal.

As explained above, any available capital loss will be applied to reduce the realised nominal gain before discounting the resulting net amount (to the extent that it does not exceed the discount capital gain) by either one-half or one-third (as applicable) to calculate the assessable capital gain.

If your E*TRADE Shares have been held for less than 12 months or you are in another category of shareholder (for example, a company), the discount capital gain method is not available. A capital gain on the shares, being any excess of the value of the capital proceeds over the unindexed cost base of the shares, will be assessable in full.

(iii) Shares acquired before 20 September 1985

There should be no CGT implications arising on disposal of your E*TRADE Shares, where they were held as capital investments and acquired, or deemed to have been acquired, before 20 September 1985 and are not deemed to have been acquired on or after that date.

14.3 Shareholders who are not Australian residents

(a) Disposal of shares held as trading stock or otherwise on revenue account

Non residents who hold their E*TRADE Shares as trading stock, or otherwise on revenue account, should seek their own professional advice, as the Australian taxation treatment may depend on the source of any gain and whether a double tax agreement exists between their country of residence and Australia.

(b) Disposal of shares held as capital investments

If you are a non-resident of Australia and hold your E*TRADE Shares as capital investments you will only have a taxable capital gain or capital loss in Australia if you have used your E*TRADE Shares at any time in carrying on business through an Australian permanent establishment.

If you are a resident of a country with which Australia has a double tax agreement, you should seek your own professional advice as to the impact of the agreement on any Australian tax liability.

Part 6. Australian Tax Considerations

14.4 Shareholders who are participants in employee share or option plans

The Australian tax implications for participants in E*TRADE Australia's employee share plans may be different from those for other holders of E*TRADE Shares. Each participant in such a plan should seek specific tax advice in relation to the Offer.

14.5 GST

No GST should generally be payable in respect of the transfer of E*TRADE Shares.

There may be an indirect GST cost in relation to taxable supplies related to the Offer (for example, legal and other adviser fees paid to obtain advice on whether to accept the Offer).

- (a) accept an Offer; or
- (b) dispose of E*TRADE Shares.

Part 7. Additional Information

16. OTHER MATERIAL INFORMATION

16.1 Defeating Conditions

The conditions of the Offer are set out in clause 5.1. Further information on some of these conditions is set out below.

(a) Minimum acceptance condition

The Offer is subject to a 90% minimum acceptance condition (see paragraph (a) of clause 5.1). ANZ Online will not waive this condition unless it considers that it is in ANZ's best interests to do so at the relevant time.

(b) No adverse regulatory action

The Offer is subject to certain regulatory action not being taken (see paragraph (b) of clause 5.1).

ANZ Online is not presently aware of any particular regulatory action which has triggered or may trigger the condition in clause 5.1(b).

(c) E*TRADE Licence

Under the E*TRADE Licence, both E*TRADE Australia and E*TRADE Financial Corporation have the right to terminate the E*TRADE Licence, without cause, on three months' notice and payment of a termination fee of US$5 million. Given ANZ's intention to continue E*TRADE Australia's business in Australia under that name, the Offer is subject to E*TRADE Financial Corporation not exercising, and waiving, its right to terminate the E*TRADE Licence without cause (see paragraph (c) of clause 5.1).

(d) No material acquisitions, disposals or changes

The Offer is subject to there being no material acquisitions, disposals or changes in the conduct of E*TRADE Australia's business (see paragraphs (d) and (e) of clause 5.1). Any such acquisitions, disposals or new commitments by E*TRADE Australia or any of its subsidiaries would potentially frustrate the Offer and deny E*TRADE Australia shareholders the opportunity to participate in the benefits accruing to them under the Offer.

E*TRADE Australia is in the best position to advise its shareholders whether or not this condition and other conditions regarding changes in the business of E*TRADE Australia (see paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of clause 5.1) will be satisfied.

(e) Stock market decline

The Offer is subject to the S&P/ASX 200 Industrials (Sector) Index not closing below 5,855 on any three or more consecutive trading days during the period to the end of the Offer period (see paragraph (g) of clause 5.1). On the day before the date of this Bidder's Statement the S&P/ASX 200 Industrials (Sector) Index closed at 6,499. The lowest level at which that Index has closed in the 12 months preceding the date of this Bidder's Statement is 5,122 on 10 August 2006.

16.2 Due Diligence on E*TRADE Australia

For the purpose of confirming its assessment of whether or not to offer to acquire all of the E*TRADE Shares, ANZ was given access by E*TRADE Australia to certain information concerning the E*TRADE Australia Group which has not been disclosed generally to E*TRADE Australia shareholders. Except as disclosed in this Bidder's Statement, none of the information to which ANZ was given access is, in the opinion of ANZ Online:

- (a) of such a nature and quality that, if the information was generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of E*TRADE Shares; or
- (b) otherwise material to a decision by an E*TRADE Australia shareholder whether or not to accept the Offer.

16.3 Bid Facilitation Agreement

ANZ entered into a Bid Facilitation Agreement with E*TRADE Australia dated 19 February 2007.

(a) ANZ Bid

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, ANZ agreed to make, or procure that a wholly-owned subsidiary made, a takeover bid to E*TRADE Australia shareholders on certain agreed terms (the Bid).

The Bid Facilitation Agreement sets out the conditions of the Bid, being those set out in clause 5 of this Bidder's Statement.

(b) Bid Conditions

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, E*TRADE Australia has agreed not to do (or omit to do) anything which will, or is likely to, result in any of the conditions of the Bid being breached. Nothing in this obligation prevents E*TRADE Australia or the E*TRADE Australia board of directors from taking, or failing to take, action where to do otherwise would, in the reasonable opinion of the E*TRADE Australia board, constitute a breach of duties of the directors of E*TRADE Australia.

(c) No solicitation

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, E*TRADE Australia has agreed that it must not and must ensure that its employees, officers and (to the extent it is reasonably able to influence them) its associates do not, and E*TRADE Australia must not require or request any adviser or agent, to directly or indirectly solicit or initiate any inquiries, proposals or discussions regarding any Competing Proposal (whether from a person with whom E*TRADE Australia has previously been in discussions or not).

A Competing Proposal is any proposal (including a scheme of arrangement) or offer that would if completed substantially in accordance with its terms, result in:

- (i) any person other than ANZ acquiring:
 - (A) control of E*TRADE Australia;
 - (B) an interest in all or a material part of the assets or business of E*TRADE Australia;

Part 7. Additional Information

- (C) a relevant interest in more than 10% of the voting shares in E*TRADE Australia; or
- (ii) E*TRADE Australia and another person forming a joint venture with respect to E*TRADE Australia's business (or a material part of it), or merging their businesses, or operating under a dual listed company, or similar structure.

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, E*TRADE Australia agreed to cease any existing discussions or negotiations with any third party relating to any Competing Proposal or any transaction that may reduce the likelihood of the success of the Bid.

E*TRADE Australia also agreed to immediately notify ANZ of any genuine and realistic approach or attempt to initiate discussions or negotiations regarding a Competing Proposal. The notice must include the identity of the relevant third party and details of the Competing Proposal.

To the extent it is entitled to do so, E*TRADE Australia has agreed to immediately require the return of all confidential information provided to third parties (other than ANZ) as part of any past solicitation of Competing Proposals.

These obligations cease where ANZ (or a subsidiary of ANZ) fails to make the Bid, ANZ (or a subsidiary of ANZ) withdraws the Bid after the Bid is made, or the Bid closes.

16.4 Announcement of ANZ's Offer

In accordance with the Bid Facilitation Agreement, by an announcement to the ASX on 19 February 2007, ANZ announced its intention to make a cash takeover offer for E*TRADE Australia of $4.05 per E*TRADE Share for the 65.8% of E*TRADE Australia's issued capital that ANZ does not own. On the same date, E*TRADE Australia also announced to ASX that it had reached an agreement with ANZ on a cash offer of $4.05 per share for the 65.8% of E*TRADE Australia's issued capital that ANZ does not own. The E*TRADE Australia announcement said that:

- a committee of independent directors comprising Kerry Roxburgh, Jim Dominguez, Ian Hunter and Brett Spork was established to consider ANZ's Offer and unanimously recommend that E*TRADE Australia shareholders accept the Offer in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that the Offer is fair and reasonable; and
- the independent directors will accept the Offer for their own E*TRADE Australia shareholdings subject to the above.

16.5 ASX/ACH Consents

Both the ANZ Group and the E*TRADE Australia Group include members who are ASX market participants and participants of the ACH clearing facility. Under ASX Market Rules, a company admitted as an ASX market participant must not become a related body corporate of another such participant without the consent of ASX. Likewise, under the ACH Clearing Rules, a company admitted as a participant of the ACH clearing facility must not become a related body corporate of another such participant without the consent of ACH.

ASX and ACH have given the necessary consents under ASX Market Rules and ACH Clearing Rules.

E*TRADE Australia operates or has operated a number of employee share schemes involving the provision of E*TRADE Shares to its employees. ANZ Online understands that the rules of these schemes may restrict participants from accepting the Offer for E*TRADE Shares which were acquired under these schemes. E*TRADE Australia is in the best position to advise participants in its employee share schemes whether they will be able to accept the Offer in respect of E*TRADE Shares which are subject to these schemes. ANZ Online expects that E*TRADE Australia will provide participants with additional information in relation to these matters in its target's statement in response to the Takeover Bid or other documentation. These participants should refer to these materials before deciding how to deal with their E*TRADE Shares.
