

RenaissanceRe Expects to Record Fourth Quarter Charges
The Company Anticipates Profitable Fourth Quarter and Full Year Results

Pembroke, Bermuda, January 16, 2008 – RenaissanceRe Holdings Ltd. (NYSE: RNR) today announced it expects to record two charges impacting its results for the fourth quarter of 2007, comprised of:

- A charge which would result in a full reduction of the Company's carried value in ChannelRe, which was $126.7 million at September 30, 2007; and
- A $55.0 million charge to increase IBNR reserves for sub-prime-related exposures in the casualty clash reinsurance book of business.

Reduction in Carried Value of ChannelRe

The Company anticipates recording a charge related to its investment in ChannelRe Holdings Ltd. ("ChannelRe"), a privately held financial guaranty reinsurer. The charge arises principally from ChannelRe's estimate of its fourth quarter unrealized mark-to-market losses from financial guaranty contracts accounted for as derivatives under generally accepted accounting principles, based on information recently furnished to ChannelRe by its sole cedant. ChannelRe has informed the Company that these mark-to-market charges will contribute to a fourth quarter loss exceeding its GAAP shareholders' equity. The Company accounts for its 32.7% interest in ChannelRe under the equity method of accounting, and its share of these charges results in a reduction in its carried value of ChannelRe to $nil. RenaissanceRe's charge, which represents the Company's full economic exposure to ChannelRe, will be reflected in the Company's net income and book value per share, but will not be reflected in operating income.

Reserve Increase in Casualty Clash Reinsurance Book

The Company expects to increase its incurred but not reported ("IBNR") reserves in its Reinsurance segment by $55.0 million to reflect estimated losses associated with exposure to sub-prime casualty losses. Typically, casualty clash reinsurance provides coverage for casualty losses stemming from an aggregation of losses from a single event. This provision will be reflected in the Company's net income and book value per share, as well as the Company's operating income.

Earnings to Be Reported on February 5, 2008

The Company anticipates reporting profitable results for the fourth quarter of 2007 and the full year, inclusive of these charges. The Company expects to issue its earnings release and financial supplement following the close of market on Tuesday, February 5, 2008.
