

As part of our efforts to maintain and promote high standards of corporate governance, we encourage the submission of good faith complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters related to Biosite or other good faith allegations of unethical or illegal actions of any Biosite employee. Any employee or other person that is subject to our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code”) and that has a complaint or report regarding such a matter should report the issue using the procedures described in the Code. Any person that is not subject to the Code should report the complaint to Biosite’s legal department at 9975 Summers Ridge Road, San Diego, CA 92121, Attn: Vice President of Legal Affairs.
