AIG COMPANIES[®] ANNOUNCE CHANGES TO CRISIS MANAGEMENT

COVERAGES

NEW YORK, July 16, 2007 – The AIG Companies[®] today announced its crisis management coverages, including CrisisResponse[®] for Excess Casualty, PublicResponseSM and Accident Site AdvisorSM, have been revised where umbrella and excess casualty policies offered by AIG Excess Casualty[®] and AIG Specialty Excess[®], now provide up to a $250,000 limit outside the policy limits to cover costs for temporary housing, travel, counseling, medical and funeral expenses. Additionally, insureds are allotted $50,000 outside of the policy limit to retain assistance from an approved crisis management firm.

“We enhanced the current coverage to provide this additional financial resource outside the umbrella limit to help our clients minimize the impact of a crisis,” said Tim McAuliffe, President, AIG Excess Casualty.

In addition to providing first-dollar coverage, the crisis management coverages afford immediate access to the AIG Companies’ claim specialists to assist in the management of a crisis situation, once a claim is reported.
