

CONTACT:

Paul Goldberg
Director of Investor Relations
(212) 922-1640

READ IT ON THE WEB

<http://www.dovercorporation.com>

January 3, 2007

DOVER CORPORATION ANNOUNCES FOURTH QUARTER 2006
EARNINGS RELEASE DATE, CONFERENCE CALL, AND WEBCAST

New York, New York (January 3, 2007) Dover Corporation (DOV: NYSE) announced today that it will release fourth quarter 2006 earnings at 6:00 a.m. EST on Wednesday, January 31, 2007. Later that morning, Dover will also host a conference call at 8:00 a.m. EST discuss these results.

The call will be available to the public through a live audio webcast on the company website at <http://www.dovercorporation.com>. In addition, the call will be available for replay on the website.

Dover Corporation is a diversified global manufacturer of value-added products and components that serves a variety of industrial and commercial markets including energy, defense, telecommunications, product identification, waste management and refrigeration systems. For over 50 years, Dover has been providing its customers – now in over 100 countries – with outstanding products and services that reflect the company's commitment to operational excellence, innovation and market leadership. Today, Dover encompasses more than 40 operating companies with over 31,000 employees in 37 countries around the world. Headquartered in New York, the company generated over $6 billion in sales in 2006. For more information, please visit www.dovercorporation.com.