

Stability. Performance. Leadership.

Founded in 1905, C.H. Robinson Worldwide, Inc. is one of the world's largest third party logistics providers, with 2008 gross revenues of $8.6 billion. We provide freight transportation and logistics, fresh produce sourcing, and information services to 32,000 customers through a network of 228 offices in North America, Europe, Asia, South America, and the Middle East. To manage our customers' freight needs, we work with over 50,000 transportation providers worldwide, including contract motor carriers, railroads, air freight carriers, and ocean carriers. With the service and dedication of approximately 8,000 employees, our performance-driven culture, and our proven track record of success, we've built a reputation as a leader in our industry. For more information about our company, visit us online at www.chrobinson.com.

