

DTE Energy

David E. Meador

Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer,
DTE Energy

David E. Meador, 44, is senior vice president and chief financial officer of DTE Energy (NYSE: DTE), a diversified energy company involved in the development and management of energy-related businesses and services nationwide. Meador is responsible for investor relations, treasury, business taxes and financial forecasting and accounting for DTE Energy and for coordinating financing and financial matters for all DTE Energy companies.

Meador joined DTE Energy in 1997 as vice president and controller. In May 2001, the board of directors elected Meador to his current position effective with the close of the merger. In addition to controller, Meador served as senior vice president and treasurer last year. His professional experience also includes serving as a senior auditor for Coopers & Lybrand's Detroit office, as well as many years of experience driving continuous improvement and waste reduction efforts in the automotive industry. Meador also was most recently controller of Chrysler Corp.'s MOPAR auto parts division.

Meador earned a bachelor's degree in accounting and a master of business administration degree from Wayne State University. He is a Certified Public Accountant. Meador is a member of the MACPA and AICPA.

Active in leadership development, Meador was DTE Energy's representative as a founding member of the Society of Organizational Learning based in Cambridge, Mass. lead by Peter Senge.

May 2001

Biography