Resolution 5: Adoption of remuneration report

The Company's remuneration report for the financial year ended 30 June 2008 is set out on pages 17 to 35 of the Annual Report 2008, (Part Two: Statutory Financial Statements), which is available at www.perpetual.com.au.

The remuneration report forms part of the directors' report for the financial year ended 30 June 2008. The remuneration report contains information required by section 300A of the Corporations Act 2001, including:

- discussion of the board's policy in relation to the nature and amount of remuneration paid to directors and executives (including senior managers of the Company and the group);
- discussion of the relationship between the board's remuneration policy and the Company's performance, including information about performance hurdles applicable to the short-term and long-term incentive components of the remuneration of senior managers; and
- details of the remuneration paid to each director of the Company (including the Managing Director) and to the employees with the greatest authority for managing and setting the strategic direction of the Company (which include the five highest paid group executives) for the financial year ended 30 June 2008.

The board's remuneration policy, as approved by the board's People and Remuneration Committee, is based on the following five key principles:

1. variable pay should be a feature of all employees' remuneration. For more senior employees variable pay forms a significant part of overall remuneration and fixed remuneration should be competitive;
2. variable pay is linked to shareholder wealth creation and individuals are clear about performance criteria;
3. short-term incentive (STI) payments are based on yearly performance and uncapped to allow for recognition of performance;
4. STI payments should be made out of the realised profits of the organisation; and
5. equity participation within the organisation should be increased to encourage a sense of ownership, be appropriately tied to stretch hurdles and encourage retention of key individuals.

The Company's approach to performance and remuneration management can be characterised as:

- aligning employee remuneration with shareholder wealth creation;
- actively supporting the successful execution of our business strategy;
- supporting the development of an entrepreneurial, team-based culture;
- assisting in attracting and retaining senior employees;
- being competitive with contemporary marketplace practice;
- providing clarity and transparency; and
- aligned with our commitment to good corporate governance.

The remuneration structure for senior employees involves three components:

- a fixed remuneration component;
- a short-term incentive component; and
- a component related to longer term performance and retention.

Section 250R of the Corporations Act 2001 requires the Company to put a resolution for adoption of the remuneration report to the vote at the meeting. In accordance with section 250R, the vote on resolution 5 will be advisory only and will not bind the directors of the Company.

Members will be given a reasonable opportunity at the meeting to ask questions about, and make comments on, the remuneration report.

The directors unanimously recommend that shareholders vote in favour of resolution 5.
