

Sensing. Effects. C3I. Mission Support. International. In an uncertain world, these crucial defense markets offer expanding scope for Raytheon's world-class technology, advanced innovation process and mission systems integration capabilities.

With the 2007 sale of our commercial aircraft businesses, we reshaped our portfolio to focus on our core government and defense business and to fully concentrate on achieving our vision "to be the most admired defense and aerospace systems supplier through world-class people and technology." Focused and energized, our 72,000 employees are committed to providing world-class performance on approximately 15,000 contracts in more than 80 countries.

Grounded in unmatched domain knowledge,
Six Sigma disciplines and our commitment to Mission Assurance, Raytheon businesses are the link between core capabilities and concrete results for our customers.

Each of our businesses has a proud history and unique resources to help customers meet challenging needs and achieve success. We are committed to protect our men and women in uniform, to secure our homeland, to guide air travelers safely to their destinations and to meet other important needs of customers around the world.
